An Expression Of Gratitude

The family of the late Sammie L. Turner, Jr. would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for the prayer, phone calls, cards, and every kind word extended during this time. A special thanks to the doctors, nurses, and Skyline Medical Center Staff in the care given. We would also like to thank all of the employees at IEnjoy Home for being such loving and caring co-workers to Sammie.

Reflections

We thought of you with love today

But that is nothing new

We thought about you yesterday

And days before that too

We think of you in silence

We often speak your name

Now all we have are memories.

Your memory is our keepsake

With which we will never part

God has you in his keeping

We have you in our heart.

Sammie Lee Turner, Jr. aka "Juice" was born September 13, 1960 in Williamson County, Tennessee to parents of Sammie Lee Turner, Sr. and Agnes Turner. Sammie was preceded in death by his mother, Agnes Turner in 2012.

Sammie gave his life to Christ at an early age at Clayborne Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church. He was a member of the junior choir and was actively associated with other ministries.

Sammie attended Franklin High School and graduated in 1978. He was a great athlete growing up and played several sports such as football, baseball, and basketball. He was a very fast runner in all of the sports. In later years he wanted everyone to call him "Juice 34". Along with his love of sports he was a die heart Dallas Cowboy fan. Sammie was employed with IEnjoy Home for one and a half years.

Sammie leaves those left behind to cherish his many memories, his sons, Michael Thompson and Steve Thompson; daughter, Sarai Short-Turner; grandchildren, Janiya, Jordan, Kennedy, Jeremiah, Lenora and Zachariah; father, Sammie Lee Turner, Sr.; sisters, Sheron (Jesse) Dotson and Shelia (Ron) Shepherd; brothers, S. Davis (Phyllis) Turner and Sherwood Turner; foster brother, Randall Shaw; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends, devoted friends, Lillian Thompson, Charlene Harrison.
