Obituary

On Monday, June 27, 2022, Tamara Janelle Wilson was called by the Lord to her eternal rest. Born Tamara Russell on March 23, 1967, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, she was the youngest child of Bobby and Dorothy Russell.

She attended John Marshall High School and was an active band member, playing the flute. Tamara received an award for Educational Achievement from President Ronald Reagan and would later graduate from high school in 1985.

Tamara's hard work at the University of Central Oklahoma earned her a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Soon after graduating, she started her initial career at Nichols Hills Bank, working as the branch manager.

During a trip to New Orleans, Tamara met Richard Wilson. Their love story would see her move to Tennessee so they could be together. Tamara and Richard wed on July 31, 2004. It is in Tennessee where they would raise their two sons: Kameron and Kylan.

Tamara was a homemaker who would become a nanny for the Roos family. After the Roos children had grown up and started elementary school, Tamara then began her next career as a real estate agent for Reliant Realty.

Tamara faithfully attended Southside Church of Christ in Nashville with her family. She remained an active member of the Southside family until her illness prevented her from doing so.

Tamara was a magnificent mother and wonderful wife who loved to travel and see new sights, visiting places such as Hawaii, the Grand Canyon, New York City, Universal Studios in Orlando, Disney World, and Sea World. She was universally loved for her kind, considerate, and caring spirit.

Tamara preceded her mother, Dorothy Mae Russell, and her brother Jarold Wayne Russell in death.

Those she leaves to cherish her precious memory are as follows: devoted husband of eighteen years, Richard Wilson; two sons—Kameron Kirby and Kylan Wilson; her father, Bobby Russell; her brother and his wife, Bobby Russell Jr. and Yolonda Russell; her sisters—Debra Russell, Barbara Russell, and Carolyn Wilson; her nephew—Tige Russell; her beloved friend, Kimberly Walton; her brothers-in-law—Felix (Geraldine) Wilson and Wayne Wilson; her sisters-in-law—Mary (Stanley) Trice, Deborah Murdic, and Elaine Jasper; and a host of cousins, nephews, aunts, uncles, other loved ones, and friends.
