Broken Chain By Ron Tranmer

We little knew that morning God was to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same. It broke our hears to lose you, You did not go alone. For part of us went with you The morning God called you home. You left us beautiful memories, Your love is still our guide, And though we cannot see you, You are always at our side. Our family and church chain are broken, And nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.
