

No Time For Sad Remembrances

There's no time for sad remembrances
Because I am home where I belong
I've conquered all my battles,
I've even heard the trumpet's song.
I've climbed my highest mountain
And I've reached an even peak,
And I've found that peace and true reward
That you have yet to seek.
There's no time for sad remembrances
For you have a precious life;
So find comfort in my journey
Please don't bear this pain and strife.
Oh! My Father's house is perfect
Just like He said it would be,
So dry your tears
Because I'm home and now I'm free.
I am part of all the beauty
That your world has yet to see;
So don't be sad about my journey,
Just be glad that I am free!

Reflection of Life

Jacob Sylvester Myers, the son of the late Jacob Myers and Bessie Myers, was born on December 20, 1952 in Cordova, South Carolina. He departed this life on May 4, 2020 at his home.

Jacob was educated in Orangeburg County public schools. He worked at Husquarna as a tester before his illness.

He enjoyed cooking, yard work, and making people laugh. Jacob was a selfless individual who would go out of his way to help others. He would give his last to make sure everyone was alright.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories, his wife, Jannie Myers; his mother, Bessie Myers; a daughter, Jaquetta Busby; a son, Tory Benjamin; a sister, Sandra Curry (Dexter Curry); two brothers: Alan Myers and Ricky Myers; five grandchildren: Kembria Felder, Tykeil Huggins, Anthony Keith Jr., Julian Benjamin and Aden Benjamin; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
