

Road To Eternity

Life is but a stopping place,

A pause in what's to be,

A resting place along the road,

to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys.

Different paths along the way,

We all were meant to learn some things,

but never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,

Far greater than we know.

For some the journey's quicker,

For some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends,

We'll claim a great reward,

And find an everlasting peace,

Together with the lord

Reflection of Life

Ms. Sharon Williams, the daughter of the late Claude Farmer and Metabeth Starks Farmer, was born on October 20, 1952 in Louisville, Kentucky. She entered eternal rest on Tuesday, June 2, 2020 following a brief illness.

She attended Loretta High School in Louisville, KY and later graduated from Spaulding College.

At an early age, she professed her faith in Jesus Christ and joined First Congregational Methodist Church. She later joined St. Paul Baptist Church once she moved to Orangeburg, SC, where she served faithfully as a missionary, President of the First Lady Ministry and Vice-President of the Pastor's Aide Ministry.

Sharon loved to shop with her daughter, Kristin. She loved clothes, and she enjoyed traveling. She spent much of her time studying God's word and diligently seeking him.

She is survived by her daughter, Kristin Williams of the home; future son-in-law, Kyle Slay; one sister, Inga (Stanley) Bush of Louisville, KY; a very special friend Edna (Wilbur) Simmons of Williston, SC; and a host of other loving relatives and dear friends.
