Reflections of Life

Mrs. Oneida Anderson, the daughter of late Mitchell Ferguson and Wilimina Gova, was born on February 27, 1923 in Larchmont, New York City.

She married Harold Walker and together they shared two children the late Sandra Leah Walker and baby Harold Walker who she survived in Life. Oneida was a bar mate in Harlem New York as well as a Mental Counselor for Willowbrook Hospital for over 50 years. She was classy, fancy and fierce. She was a woman who stood by her very own values and morals. After retirement she spent her days playing spades each and every day with friends inside of her neighborhood park. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Sandra Walker; and two grandsons; Dwayne Walker and Melvin Walker.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, one sister, Dorothy Mae; six grandchildren: Iris Walker, Oneida Walker, Donna Walker, Brenda Walker, Anthony Harold Walker, and Damon Bailey; 35 Great-grandchildren, and numerous great-great grand children; and a host of other loving relatives and dear friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
