

A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says,

"Grieve not for me.

*Remember the best times,
the laughter, the song.*

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage,

I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease,

my soul is at rest.

*Remembering all,
how I truly was blessed.*

*Continue traditions,
no matter how small.*

*Go on with your life,
don't worry about falls.*

*I miss you all dearly,
so keep up your chin.*

Until the day comes we're together again."

A Grandma is a Blessing

A grandma is a blessing,
She's thoughtfulness and love.
The finest and most precious gift,
Sent from our Father above
You know she'll always be there,
Whether skies are blue or gray.
She'll always lend a helping hand,
She'll never turn away.
Each selfless this about her,
Is special to recall.
A grandma is a blessing,
The most precious one of all.

-Love, TaSheea, LaDontis and William, III

Reflection of Life

Elaine Doris Sims Robinson, the daughter of the late Mr. & Mrs. David and Ethel Sims, was born June 28, 1953. She gained her wings September 16, 2022.

Elaine was educated in the public schools of Orangeburg, SC and was a 1971 graduate of Wilkinson High School. She then matriculated to South Carolina State University, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Home Economics, Early Childhood Education, and Elementary Education in 1976. She completed her Master of Education Elementary Counseling in 1984. She also completed her Real Estate License at Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical College in the Summer of 1986.

Elaine started her teaching career in Orangeburg County School District 3 from August of 1976 to June 1986. In August of 1986, she continued her career at Orangeburg County School District 5, until June of 2020. She spent a total of 44 years teaching the children of the Orangeburg Community. During her 44- year tenure, she received the Teacher of the Year Award and earned her National Board Certification.

Elaine was a faithful member of Edisto Fork United Methodist Church, where she was a former member of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, former United Methodist Women Secretary and Treasurer, former Edisto Fork UMC Mass Choir Treasurer, and former Director of the Salley Chapel Summer Tutorial Program. She currently served on the Edisto Fork Mass Choir, United Methodist Women, Church and Society, Seeds of Promise, and was the activity coordinator for the Edisto Fork UMC Family Group "Faithfulness."

Elaine was also a part of Ladies of Distinction, the American Business Women's Association and NAACP. She was also a member of the Education Association, where she served on the local, state and national levels.

Elaine leaves to cherish fond memories: her loving daughter, Latesha (William B.) Franklin, Jr.; one brother, Jerry O. (Janie) Sims of Orangeburg, SC; three grandchildren: William B. Franklin, III, Tasheea L. Franklin and LaDontis W. Franklin all of Orangeburg, SC; a special niece, Sherika D. Sims; uncle, Willie Jennings of Orangeburg, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
