

How Much You've Given Me in Happiness

I thank you for the love you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled alone
So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
That it is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near,
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear
And then, when you come this way alone...
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

"Grief, I've learned, is really just love. It's all the love you want to give, but cannot. All that unspent love gathers up in the corners of your eyes, the lump in your throat, and in that hollow part of your chest. Grief is just love with no place to go."
