Adrian,

You were the "wind beneath my wings." You were my strength. You lifted me up when my spirits were low. You gave me the motivation to keep moving on. Most of all you gave me the opportunity to finally be loved the correct way - the kind of love that people search for a lifetime and never find. I will always cherish the memories that we shared. And until we are rejoined back together, I will carry our love forever in the depth of my heart.

I Love You, Peggy

*Though others may forget,
Never will pass my mind,
The memories that came before
Your Daughter,
Cameron Alexis Caldwell*

Obituary

Mr. Adrian Caldwell, son of the late Mr. Theodore Caldwell, Jr. and Mrs. Helen Smalls Caldwell, was born on July 7, 1971 in Orangeburg County. He departed this life on Saturday, June 8, in Orangeburg, SC.

He received his formal education from Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical College and South Carolina State University, Orangeburg, SC and worked as a Senior Engineer at Continental Tire in Sumter, SC.

At an early age in life, Adrian joined St. Paul Baptist Church in Orangeburg, SC where he dedicated his life to the Lord. He later became a member of Brookland Baptist Church in Columbia, SC.

He was very active in the community and was, among many things, the Chairman of the Board and the brains behind the establishment of Inspirations College & Career Charter Academy in Columbia, SC.

Adrian was beloved by everyone that had the honor and pleasure to come in contact with him. He was tireless in how he showed up to help any and everyone he could. Adrian had a uniquely special and caring heart and love for people. When Adrian loved you, he gave his all to make sure you knew how much he loved you. He was always willing to help, even if it meant he would be at a disadvantage. He drew his joy from knowing that you were better off than you were before. Adrian was not just a gentlemen. He was a gentle man. He never spoke of any of his accomplishments and was most proud of being a parent. Both father and daughter were inseparable.

He was preceded in death by his Mother, Helen Smalls Caldwell and Father, Theodore Caldwell, Jr.

Adrian is survived by his wife Peggy Conner Caldwell, his only daughter, and the “apple of his eye” Cameron Alexis Caldwell; two brothers Anthony (Amanda) Caldwell, Orangeburg, SC and Dexter (Monica), Greenville, SC; two sisters: Victoria (Hootan) Afzali-Caldwell, San Jose, CA and Tiffany (Donnell) Washington, Beaufort, SC; two step-daughters, Adrienne McTeer and Madison McTeer, Sumter, SC; 3 step-grandchildren, Carson, Cameron, and Aubree; 15 beloved nieces and nephews, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and other loving relatives and friends.
