Reflections of Life

Mr. J C Edmond, Sr., the son of the late Eartha “Tug” Lee Hardy, Sr. and Lizzie Edmond, was born March 3, 1940 in Calhoun County, South Carolina. He departed earth for his heavenly home on October 16, 2019.

JC was educated in the public schools of Calhoun County.

He retired from Jackson Elders Steel where he was a welder for many years and known for his BBQ grill craftsmanship.

JC accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Antioch Baptist Church where he was member of the male choir.

JC was preceded in death by his parents and five siblings: Mammie Lou Howell, Sallie Kimpson, Eloise Glover, Freddie Edmond and Eartha Lee Hardy, Jr.

JC leaves to cherish fond memories, his loving wife of 56 years, Elizabeth B. Edmond of St. Matthews, SC; daughter, Lizzie E. (Willie) Brown of St. Matthews, SC; three sons: Hercules (Jacqueline) Benjamin, David (Dorothy) Benjamin, and JC Edmond, Jr., all of St. Matthews, SC; sister, Edna Pearl Jones of St. Matthews, SC; three brothers: Johnnie (Bessie Lou) Edmond and James (Mary) Edmond both of St. Matthews, SC and Herbert Edmond of Darlington, SC; sister-in-law, Bertha Mosely; two brothers-in-law: Larry Young and George Fields, Sr both of St. Matthews, SC; seven grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

He Is Gone

You can shed tears that he is gone
Or you can smile because he has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember him and only that he is gone
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Acknowledgements

The family of the late J. C. Edmond, Sr. would like to express their sincere appreciation for your prayers, concerns, acts of love and any other expressions of kindness shown to them during our time of bereavement. May God bless each of you in a very special way.
