REVEREND JAMES E. BROWN, OFFICIATING

- The Obituary -

Ms. Esther Lipscomb, daughter of the late Mr. John Lipscomb and Mrs. Ola Finch Lipscomb was born March 25, 1926 in Chambers County, Alabama.

Esther loved the Lord and at a young age confessed Christ and united with the Galilee Missionary Baptist Church. There a foundation was laid for her continuous love and devotion for Christ.

Later in life, she joined The Cornerstone Missionary Baptist Church where she served faithfully until her health started to fail.

Esther was known for her wisdom, her humbleness, her love for family, friends and people in general. She loved to laugh and enjoyed seeing others laugh and did what she could to make others happy also. She was called Mother by all who met her.

At 2:20 a.m. Tuesday morning, July 28, 2020 Esther answered the call of the Lord and entered into eternal rest, safe in the presence of the Lord. She was preceded in death by her son, Robert Lewis Lipscomb.

She leaves to cherish her memory: five daughters, Geraldine Lipscomb, Carolyn Johnson, Barbara Lipscomb, Joann Lipscomb and Jennifer Lipscomb-Thomas, all of Opelika, AL; two sons, Curtis Lipscomb and Clanton Lipscomb, both of Opelika, AL; one sister, Gertrude Walker of Brooklyn, NY; one brother-in-law, Renza Wright, Sr. of Opelika, AL; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

- Miss Me but Let Me Go -

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.
