- This Clay House -

I have finished now with this house of clay,
Please kindly and carefully lay it away.
And let me rest from this life of pain,
Toiling in sunshine, storm and rain.
Trying to help the sick and poor,
And turning no needy from my door.
I strove to do my master's work,
Never a duty did I shirk.
Many times I was misunderstood,
When I had done the best I could.
I am tired now so let me rest,
Don't cry, don't you know God knows best.
Please no sad hearts, no hung down heads,
Don't weep for me for I am not dead.
I have another house you know,
Where only God's redeemed can go.
I do not need this house of clay,
So tenderly, carefully, lay it away.

BENEDICTION

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Psalm 23
