- Still Remain -

Do not stand at my grave and weep
 I am not there. I do not sleep.
 I am a thousand winds that blow,
 I am the diamond glints on the snow.
 I am sunlight on ripened grain,
 I am the gentle Autumn’s rain.
 When you awaken in the morning hush;
 I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.
 I am the soft star that shines at night.
 Do not stand at my grave and cry.
 I am not there, I did not die!

- A Prayer for Our Grandmother -

For as long as I can remember, you had been there just for us. Your hugs and kisses warmed our hearts and were sweet as they could be. It appeared as though just when we couldn’t love anymore, you surprised us, when we least expected it a knock upon our door.

We prayed each night God would keep you well - your mind and body strong, so through the years we would be together, right where we all belong. You have taught us how to see that God sends miracles our way, you were such an inspiration to so many every day.

You said I hope you will never waste your time “wishing”, life was not unfair, but trust instead, God has a plan and answers every prayer. You said we may not always get the wishes that we make, so maybe in those times Grand Mom, God’s answer is, “Just wait.”

We guess we had to wait a while, for our wish to come true. You see, we asked the Lord to let us grow up to be just like you.

We couldn’t be more grateful to the Father up above, for giving us our very sweet GRANDMOTHER to LOVE!!!
