

— Until We Meet Again —

Those special memories of you
Will always bring a smile,
If only we could have you back,
For just a little while.
Then we could sit and talk again,
Just like we used to do.
You always meant so very much,
And always will too.
The fact that you're no longer here,
Will always cause us pain,
But you're forever in our hearts,
Until we meet again.

We Love You, Your Siblings

OVERSEER MARKITA JAMES-SMITH, OFFICIATING

— The Obituary —

Oscar Lee Foreman, Jr., was born on March 5, 1948 to the late Mr. Oscar Lee Foreman, Sr. and Ms. Susie Mae Oliver in Lee County, Alabama.

He was well known by family and friends as “Fab”. He was a very quiet but awesome young gentleman who loved life, family and friends dearly.

Mr. Foreman served in the U.S. Army from 1970-1974, receiving an Honorable Discharge in 1974. During his time of serving in the military, he received numerous medals and awards for his bravery. He served in the Vietnam War from 1971-1972 and enlisted in the Reserves from 1972-1974. As a wonderful and brave soldier, he received the following: Bronze Service Star to Vietnam Service Medal, Parachute and Air Medal Badge, Combat Infantry Badge and Good Conduct Medal. During all these accomplishments, he was promoted to Sergeant in 1972.

Even after all of this, he continued to serve his Government by moving to Cincinnati, Ohio and began working for the U.S. Postal Service as Mail Equipment Operational Supervisor. After 25 years of employment with the USPS he retired and moved to Alabama to care for his ill mother.

Mr. Foreman departed this life into a new life with the Lord on December 31, 2020 at East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama. He was preceded in death by two sons, Dale Foreman and Dannon Foreman, and one brother, James Foreman.

He will truly be missed by many. He leaves to cherish his memories: two sons, Bishop Quinton O. (Alesia) Smith of Opelika, AL and Oscar L. (Neatra) Foreman, III of Cincinnati, OH; five sisters, Bernice Foreman, Brenda Foreman, Clarice Jefferson, Elizabeth Foreman and Ernestine Johnson; nine grandchildren, Clarence Smith, Morteza (Markita) Smith, Deundra Smith, Juwanta Crossty, Da'Shawn Foreman, Catreece (Devonte) Cannon, Devin Foreman, D'Nyah Foreman and Isaiah Lee Foreman; nine great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

BENEDICTION

— Dad —

He never looked for praises,
He was never one to boast,
He just went on quietly working,
For the ones he loved the most.
His dreams were seldom spoken,
His wants were very few,
And most of the time his worries,
Went unspoken too.
He was there ... a firm foundation,
Through all our storms of life,
A sturdy hand to hold on to,
In times of stress and strife.
A true friend we could turn to,
When times were good or bad,
One of our greatest blessings,
The man that we called Dad.
Your Loving Children
