- House of Clay -

*So when I am through with this Old House of Clay, just box it up and lay it away,
For the Builder has promised,
when this one is spent,
To have one all ready from the timber I have sent,
while I lived in this one.
Now if it's built poorly, well then 'tis our loss,
'cause it's made of material we send across.
You ask what material is best to select.
'Twas told you long since by the Great Architect,
"A New Commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another as I have loved you."
So the finest material to send up above
Is, pure straight-grained timber, of brotherly love.*

- When Tomorrow Starts Without Me -

By: David M. Romano

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand.
The angel said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love,
But when I walked through Heaven's Gates,
I felt so much at home,
For God looked down, smiled at me,
And told me, "Welcome home."
So, when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.*
