

Reflections of Life

J.C. Wright (Sneakapeak) was born on July 25, 1946 to the late Mrs. Julie Lee and Mr. Micheal Charles Wright Sr. J.C. was one of 14 children. He attended Lee County Public Schools , leaving home at an early age to explore life.

J.C. better known as “Sneak-A-Peak” was young at heart and loved his family. He was the type of man that did what he wanted to do, his way or no way. He was a dear friend who had many friends that loved him. He lived his life to the fullest and now he can rest.

J.C. was preceded in death by a son Eric Sanders who was a twin.

He leaves to cherish his memories a lovely daughter Erica Sanders of Bainbridge, GA; two brothers: Harry Wright of Atlanta, GA and Sonny Wright of Leslie, GA; a car wreck buddy Demetrius Hubbard, and a host of nieces, nephews, other close relatives and friend who will miss him dearly.
