Reflections of Life

September 28, 1961 - January 04, 2022

Pamela J. Ward was born to the late Raymond and Constance Jordan September 28, 1961, in Poughkeepsie, New York.

As a teen she moved to Orlando, Florida where she attended Evans High School, graduating in the year 1979. She attended the University of Central Florida where she received her bachelor's degree in social work.

Pamela met Leon in 1981. They were married in 1986. A little over a year they moved to his hometown Dawson, GA in 1988, where they started their lives together. Anyone who came to know her can truly say she was a loving person, soft spoken, kind, and had a caring heart for everyone that touched her life. She worked in the community at Dawson Pharmacy for 10 years, Dawson Manor about 2 years, and Phoebe Putney Hospital for over 20 years in her field of social work. Due to her health, she retired early from a job she loved. She was happy taking care of others need.

Pamela passed away unexpectedly on January 4, 2022, at Piedmont Hospital in Atlanta, GA. She was preceded in death by her father Raymond Jordan, Constance Jordan, and her baby boy William Ward.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories; Husband Leon Ward, a daughter Shakera King (Emanuel King), two grandchildren E'Niya and E'Londyn King all of Dawson, Ga; Her sister Saresa Milton (Rickey Milton) Washington state; Two brothers: Nathan Jordan (Rosiland Jordan) South Carolina, and Michael Jordan (Priscilla Jordan) Florida; Her in laws: Williams and Vera Ward, Cleveland Ward (Jennifer Ward), Carolyn Brown (Derrick Brown) all of Dawson, GA, and Alphonza Ward (Amanda Ward) of Albany, GA; Many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who loved her dearly.

"A Fallen Limb"

A limb has fallen from our family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me." Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in. Don't say I lost the battle, for its God's war to lose or win. Remember the best times, the laughter, and all the songs. The good life I lived while I was young, healthy, and strong. Continue my legacy, no matter how small. Go on with your life and don't worry about the falls. Don't say how good I was, but that I did my best...I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could, not to do any less. My mind is at ease and my soul is at rest. Remembering it all and how I am truly blessed. And if you must do something, then I have one last request. Read your bible; pray, and praise God who loves us the best. Although, I will miss you all dearly, please keep up your chin. And remember the day will come when we're all together again.
