Family & Friends

Acknowledgements

We, the Family, are most grateful for your many expressions of love, concern and sympathy during our hours of bereavement, making our burden of grief much easier to bear. Our hearts are so full of love and gratitude toward all of you. Your prayers, words of consolation, flowers and many acts of kindness have sustained us truly. A special thank you to Tavaris Jackson and Erin Ingram for the Slideshow. It is our prayer that GOD richly blesses each of you in a very special way. We love you!

~ The Family ~

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

The Essence of His Life

TO EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON AND A TIME TO EVERY PURPOSE UNDER THE SUN.
ECCLESIASTES 3:1 -

A Time to Be Born....

Tommie Lee Ingram III (affectionately known as Snook) was born September 10th, 1971 to Ollie Littlejohn Ingram and the late Tommie Lee Ingram Jr at the US Army Hospital in Fort McPherson, Georgia.

A Time to Build Up....

He attended school through the Dekalb County School System. He accepted Christ as his Savior and was baptized by Bishop Gerald Ancrum and became a member of the Bread of Life Church in Atlanta at the age of 28. Tommie later in life joined Praise Tabernacle Pentecostal Church in 2015, where he served as a Deacon Elect.

A Time to Love....

Tommie married Tawonna Raquel Hudson on September 25th, 1999. In this union they raised two beautiful young ladies whom he was especially proud of, Nisha Rashawn Hudson and Erin Nicole Ingram. Tommie obtained his commercial driver license in 2008 and was also HAZMAT certified. Tommie enjoyed cars, music, sports, Ralph Lauren, and above all things, he loved his family. Especially his beautiful wife Tawonna, and daughters Nisha and Erin. Tommie was a devoted son and cared deeply for his parents. Tommie affectionately referred to his wife and daughters as his crew, and he was their rock. Tommie was a part-time comedian on FaceBook and a counselor to many of his family members and friends. He was a guiding light and always seemed to know what to say at the right time for comfort or encouragement.

A Time to Die....

On September 6, 2020, he departed his life to be with the Lord. He will truly be missed by everyone who crossed his path. Tommie leaves to cherish his loving and precious memories his wife Tawonna Ingram, two daughters Nisha Hudson and Erin Ingram, his mother Ollie Littlejohn Ingram, two brothers Timothy Ingram (Sharon) and Terrence Ingram, an aunt Evelyn Huff, two uncles Willie Littlejohn (Annie) and Oliver Littlejohn Sr. (Brenell), a Mother-In-Law Sandra Stovall, three brother-in-laws Stacato Hudson, Keith Stovall, Tavaris Jackson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and numerous friends.

When Your Loved one Becomes a Memory, the Memory Becomes a Treasure!

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
 Into that gentle night
 Grieve if you will, but not for long
 Upon my soul's sweet flight
 I am at peace, my soul's at rest
 There is no need for tears
 For with your love I was so blessed
 There is no pain, I suffer not
 The fear is now all gone
 Put now these things out of your thoughts
 In your memory, I live on
 Remember not my fight for breath
 Remember not the strife
 Please do not dwell upon my death
 But celebrate my life

Love, Snook
