

IF IT SHOULD BE

*If it should be that you grow frail and weak,
And pain should wake you from your sleep,
Then you must do what must be done
For this last battle cannot be won.*

*We will be sad, but we will understand
Don't let our grief remain in your hand,
For on this day, more than all the rest
Your love and friendship stand the test.*

*We've had so many happy years
What is to come can hold no fears
We don't want you to suffer, so,
When the time comes, we will let you go.*

*I know in time we will see
It's kindness you did for us and for me.
Although your hand has this last wave
From pain and suffering you have been saved.*

*We don't grieve that it should be you
Who had to decide what you are to do.
We've been so close all these years
We won't let our hearts hold too many tears.

Memories

HE KNOWS BEST

*God saw that he was getting tired,
A cure was not to be.
So he put his arms around him
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched him suffer,
And saw him fade away.
Although we loved him dearly,
We could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands lay to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
That he knows best.*
