

John 14:1-6 NIV

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going." Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

OBITUARY

Kim Sabrina Cooper was born on August 14, 1966 in Harlem, New York to Hubert Dixon and Helen Cooper. She resided in Long Island City where she spent most of her childhood years. Kim was a quiet and obedient child who enjoyed spending time with friends and family. She attended the New York City public school system and graduated from Wood Business School. She worked at Clayton County Sheriff's Office as a correction officer.

Kim's smile was infectious, and she was a joy to be around. She was simply a beautiful young woman. She was kind and would literally "give you the shirt off her back." If you had Kim as a friend, you had a friend for life. Kim loved her children, but her grandchildren held a special place in her heart. It was her greatest satisfaction to see her grandkids and shower them with gifts.

Kim caught the eye of Keith Alston also a native of Long Island City and they gave birth to Sabrina Alston. Kim later met and married Steven Peterson and had Etienne and Stephen Peterson. It was during this time she gave to her children a love that only a mother could.

In May 2019 Kim fell ill, but her fight for life remained strong. She never complained and continued to show courage and faith despite her health condition. Throughout her journey she was showered with love and support from her children, family, and friends. Even through the most trying times of her illness she would always say "I am okay."

On February 21, 2021 Kim passed calmly in comfort. Many will remember our beloved Kim by her beautiful smile, we want her to be remembered by how she loved. Our hearts are heavy with our loss of our beloved Kim, but we are far more blessed to have shared life with her. Her love, light and legacy will live on in her children.

Kim was preceded in death by her father Hubert Dixon. She is survived by her loving mother Ms. Helen Cooper, Joseph Cooper, Charles Cooper, Alexander Cooper, Tracy Cooper, Sabrina Alston, Etienne Peterson, Stephen Peterson and a host of nieces and nephews and family members.
