

BLACK DIAMOND

Black Diamond such a rarity
I knew a Black Diamond she was our anchor:
who brought us much clarity

Clarity in her words, clarity in her personal life
Such faithfulness and dedication to being a mother and a wife

The joy of laughter we experienced together all so much Time spent with family, your love for walking your dogs: your essence was more than the midas touch

Service to your community and your household
Readily to assist in praying for anyone without hesitation:
a guardian foretold

Our anchor bringing up the rear:
very supportive always a vibrant spirit
Virtuous Queen who would ukyglight up a room with a smile:
very passionate

Your jokes, I hear it in my head the impact you had on people you wouldn't believe Crossing the burning sands, a new chapter we ALL resurrected into the 18 Kollektive Keys

We are our sister's Keyper always and forever Your wonderful character and personality won't be forgotten: NEVER SISTERS for life, our anchor will give you the shirt off her back: very determined Precious cargo, Nurturing spirit beautiful sister our Ivy Black Diamond

OBITUARY

Mrs. Ivy Renee "Black Diamond" Alphonse was born on April 22, 1975 in Jacksonville, Florida to Charles and Doris Morgan. She attended Annie R. Morgan Elementary school, Highlands Middle School, and graduated from Wolfson Senior High School. Ivy also obtained her Associate Degree from Keiser University.

Ivy was happily married to her best friend Ian Alphonse, and to this union, two children, Ivianna and Ivan were born.

Ivy was a member of St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church for almost three decades where she sang in the choir and would assist in any way she could. She was a great helping hand to the church.

Ivy retired from the U.S. Navy after almost twenty-one years of loyal service. She served onboard 2 naval surface vessels, one surface vessel was the USS Essex, and the other one was the USS Sullivans. She traveled all over the world on deployments. While serving in the Navy, she was also a RDC and Recruiter, putting hundreds of prospective sailors in the Navy and through boot camp.

Ivy also served as an Eastern Star since circa 2009. She also recently joined a Military Sorority called "K.E.Y" Kappa Epsilon Psi Military Sorority Inc. in 2018. Mrs. Alphonse was also a very active contributor to communities of Jacksonville, Florida. She really believed in doing community service, helping the homeless and the less fortunate.

Ivy was a loving and dedicated mother, and a very devoted wife. She was an obedient daughter, compassionate sister, caring aunt, and a loyal friend. She will be missed by all, but her memories will live forever.

Ivy is survived by her husband, Ian Alphonse; her daughter, Ivianna Alphonse; her son, Ivan Alphonse; her two bonus sons, Jaden Alphonse and Jordan Alphonse; her parents, Doris and Charles Morgan; her sister, Sherryl Morgan; her brother, Floyd Key; one uncle; one auntie; six nieces; one nephew; three grand-nieces; three grand-nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
