Obituary

Mr. Ernest Williams, Jr. was born in Jacksonville, Florida on January 17, 1954 to his parents Ernest Williams, Sr. and Mae Pansy Williams. He attended Duval County Public Schools before joining the Job Corps. He graduated and was classified as Tech I. He also received a Small Engine Repair & Maintenance Technician Certification as well as a Meat Manager Certificate.

Ernest Williams, Jr. was employed by Premier Meats for several years. He later owned a lawn maintenance service. He was a member of BrideGroom Apostolic Church.

Ernest really enjoyed being with his family and friends. He loved having a good time. He was known to his family and friends as Chicken George and Butch.

Ernest was preceded in death by his father: Ernest Williams, Sr; mother: Mae Pansy Williams; son: Ernest Williams II; siblings: Ernestine Walker, Jessie Williams, Nadine Tolen, and Catherine Jones.

Mr. Ernest Williams, Jr. leaves to cherish his memory: his two loving daughters: Rochelle Buckman and Melissa Williams; honorary daughters: Vikki Corey (Roger) and Veronica Moore; brothers: Curtis Williams, Cecil Williams (Vonice) and Otis Williams (Sheila); sister: Godfreda Lamar; Uncle: Elder Arbie Clark (Louise); a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, family members and friends

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call; I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way; I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much; good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee; God wanted me now; He set me free.
