

Our family has been saddened by the passing of our eldest brother, Arlington. While we have been miles apart, mutual love was shared between us, as over the years, family members and other relatives have been regularly in contact with him. Our hope was that one day we would be reunited as siblings, but that never materialized. We are thankful to God for blessing him with loving, caring children and his companion, who were at his side to the end and to whom we are most grateful. Our hearts are comforted, knowing that he is with His God, in a better place, where there is no more sickness or pain.

Rest in Peace, dear brother.

*Siblings: Louis, Stephenson, Sylvia, John,
Eulalie, Adella, Anita, Bertha, and Juliette*

Obituary

ARLINGTON LEROY SAUNDERS was born on March 9, 1951, to James(Bruce) Udol Rodgers and Norah Victoria Saunders Bristol on the Island of Anguilla, West Indies. At an early age, he moved to St. Kitts and resided in Puerto Rico for a short time before migrating to the United States in 1965.

Once in America, he moved to Jersey City, New Jersey, but worked in New York City, for more than 40 years as a Security Officer in a variety of capacities and locations. His passion for New York City also rewarded him with meeting new people and the leisure of traveling throughout the city during his spare time. That is where he met Josie (Doretha) Clark, who became his companion, and the two began a family.

Arlington loved spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren. He enjoyed taking his kids, grandkids, other family, and friends by train and car back and forth to New York City, to participate in various activities, such as taking the Staten Island Ferry, riding the cable cars and NYC subway, and going to Times Square and Rockefeller Center to see the Christmas tree lights. He also loved engaging with them about the latest technology and inventions.

Arlington departed this life on August 17, 2021, in Jacksonville, Florida, where he had been living since November 2018. He was preceded in death by his parents, Bruce and Norah, and his brothers, John Saunders and Terrence Manning. He leaves behind his life-long companion, Josie Clark; his daughter, Tera Tawanna Clark, and son, Arlington Jamal Clark; his grandsons, Marquis Jackson-Clark, Marquell Jackson-Clark, and Josiah Clark, and his granddaughter, Tamiya Jackson-Clark; brothers, Harrington Bristol, Warren Bristol, Louis Sender, Stephenson Rogers, and Johnny Rogers; sisters, Sylvia Rogers, Eulalie Dupuis (Rogers), Anita Petit, Bertha Gumbs (Rogers), Adella Rogers, and Juliette Marie Mussington (Rogers); and many beloved nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
