

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path God laid for me
 I took his hand when I heard him call,
 I turned my back and left it all
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work or play
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I've found that peace at the close of day
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
 My life's been full, I've savored much,
 Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
 If my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
 Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

LAUREN MICHELLE PRELOW was born in Jacksonville, Florida on November 18, 1988, to the union of Lorenza O. Prelow Jr. and Janice D. Prelow-Wright (John). On November 19, 2021, Lauren reached out taking the hand of The Heavenly Father and transitioned to eternal life.

Lauren graduated from Robert E. Lee High School, the Class of 2006. She participated in the band.

Lauren's spiritual foundation began at St. Matthew African Methodist Episcopal Church. The Bible speaks on instilling a spiritual foundation in our children and at St. Matthew African Methodist Episcopal Church, Lauren learned the importance of having a relationship with Christ and she accepted Him as her Lord and Savior. Lauren also participated in various programs at the church. Her favorite was singing in the choir. Her favorite gospel artists were Fred Hammond and Radical for Christ, Yolanda Adams and recently Marvin Winans.

Lauren had a passion for children and she loved, cared, and nurtured them as if they were her own. She was also a hard worker who often had more than one job at the same time. She liked to stay busy and would do what was needed to accomplish her assigned work.

Lauren, affectionately called "Lady Bugg" by her mom and "Losky" by friends, would always make her presence known. She would be the one to change the atmosphere just by her presence. She was very jubilant, full of life, laughter and she liked being extremely loud. You definitely knew if she was in the room.

Lauren loved celebrating her birthday and she made it her own "personal holiday". If you didn't know, but encountered her during her personal celebration, you would know real quick and in a hurry, because she did not mind letting everyone around her know just how much she loved her birthday. She would engage everyone she encountered to acknowledge it and celebrate with her.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Dorothy Mae Reynolds; paternal grandmother, Donetha A. Prelow; paternal grandfather, Lorenza O. Prelow, Sr.; uncle, Eugene Williams; aunts, Barbara E. Bell, Josephine Barnes and Linda F. Reynolds-Brown.

She leaves to cherish her exuberant and sweet memories three (3) brothers, Lorenza O. Prelow III, Carlos Montgomery and John Wright II (Natasha) all of Jacksonville, FL; three (3) aunts, Yolanda E. Prelow (Brown) of Jacksonville, FL, Mary Jordan (Floyd) of Euclid, Ohio and Jacqueline McGhee of Columbus, Georgia. Five (5) uncles, James Reynolds (Mollie) of Webb, Alabama, Joseph Williams (Pam), Ronald Williams (Linda), Ulysses Williams and Orian Prelow, all of Jacksonville, Florida; her godson Lorenzo Jackson and a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
