A Glimpse INTO THE BEAUTIFUL LIFE of Shakeria

SHAKERIA JANAE JOHNSON was born on February 16, 1995 in Jacksonville, Florida to Mr. Willie and Mrs. Sherry Johnson. Shakeria was the middle child of three siblings; older brother, Antwan Sherrod Johnson and younger sister, Jasmine Renee Johnson.

Her early childhood education was at Northshore Elementary School. She attended middle School at Jefferson Davis and High School at Paxon Advanced Studies. Shakeria attended Florida International University in Miami, Florida, and University of North Florida where she graduated with honors after receiving her Bachelor's Degree in early childhood education.

Shakeria received her first job as a first grade teacher at SP Livingston Elementary School. She loved her students and wanted to make sure that she instilled a hunger for knowledge in each of them. She was committed to making learning a positive experience for all her students.

Shakeria was not married; however, she and her partner, Elijah Brown, were committed to planning their marriage, and he demonstrated his love for her consistently during their time together.

Shakeria was a proud member of Philippian Community Church. She was six years old when she became a member. She enjoyed participating in the youth choir and was also a youth praise dancer. Shakeria loved God and her church family.

Shakeria made sure that everything she did was done in excellence. She always treated everyone the way she wanted to be treated. Shakeria had a love for life and was insistent on living it to its full potential. Shakeria always remained positive and kept a smile on her face while going through chemotherapy and radiation. Shakeria wrote a book called Side Effects: Survive the 15%. She was also starting her second book aimed at encouraging small children that are going through chemotherapy.

Shakeria took her wings on January 13, 2022 at 4:00pm surrounded by family and friends. She no longer has to battle cancer. She is resting in the arms of Jesus, and for that we are at peace.

Shakeria is survived by her loving parents Willie and Sherry, brother, Antwan, sister, Jasmine, grandparents Annie Hill and Norma Johnson, plus a host of other family members and friends.
