

SAFELY HOME

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!

There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will.

There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth Â-You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

OBITUARY

Nathaniel Jones was born on August 31, 1944 to Janie and James Jones in Bamberg, South Carolina. He attended schools in Bamberg, South Carolina. He gave his life to Christ at an early age. He worked at Barnett Brass and Copper Company for over 23 years. He was a jack of all trades and continued to work after retirement anywhere he could to keep going. His work ethic was inimitable.

Nathaniel loved cooking and watching TV with his wife Annie Jones; being the best daddy to Natalie Jones and making her doll house; being the best grandfather to Daniel, Craig and Yazmalena Jones. He enjoyed dancing, singing, playing the guitar with Frank; talking on the porch with Grace; playing cards with Elvin; enjoying time with Angus, and being a little big brother to Ginnie Mae and Little Mae; and loving on all of his brothers and sisters.

He was preceded in death by his parents Janie and James Jones; sisters Virgil Jones and Grace Jones; brothers Frank Jones, Elvin Jones Sr., J.J. Jones, and Norman Jones; the greatest mother-in-law Orlean Rackley; and brother-in-law Walter Jean Carter.

Nathaniel Jones leaves to cherish his memories: his wife Annie Jones, his one and only daughter Natalie Jones; three grandchildren: Daniel, Craig, and Yazmalena Jones.
