

DAD

There is no one else on earth so special as you were to me.
I hold you forever, my precious Dad, in my heart and memory.
You made me laugh every single day, you really were the best.
And even though you are not here, The time we had was blessed.
I wish I had just one more chance, to see that tender smile,
To laugh with you again, my Dad,
Just for a little while.
So, this is not goodbye and this is not goodnight,
Because you're still here by my side,
Holding on to me so tight.
Love,
Zoi, Zayden, Zamora, and Bless

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF Freeman EARL
RICHARDSON

Freeman Earl Richardson was born on January 13, 1997, in Jacksonville, Florida to Freeman Richardson and the late Aisha Freeman. He attended the local schools of Duval County and proudly graduated from William M. Raines High School in 2015. He later obtained his certification to become a Merchant Seaman and was determined to set sail by the end of this year. Freeman had several goals and dreams that he was working towards accomplishing prior to his untimely passing.

Freeman enjoyed riding dirt bikes, driving fast cars, and “making money” (as he would say). He was very charismatic with a great sense of humor and had a contagious smile that could brighten up an entire room. He had a gentle soul and would literally do anything for the ones he loved. Freeman was a devoted father who cherished his children. Their bond was undeniable. After his mother passed, he made a vow to always look after his siblings which he did so up until he took his final breath. Freeman was always someone that others could depend on. He will be truly missed.

Freeman was preceded in death by his mother: Aisha Freeman; grandmother: Annette Freeman; and grandfather: Sinclair Johnson.

Freeman is survived by his father: Freeman Richardson; children: Zoi, Zayden, & Zamora Richardson, and Bless Rickerson; brothers: Jewell Hayes III and Freeman Richardson, Jr; sisters: Felicity Richardson and Jew’vanii Hayes; nephews: Nasjuan Rivers and Jewell Hayes IV; grandmother: Shirley Richardson; aunts: Tracy Richardson, Alia Freeman and Shadonya Gallion; uncles: Eddie Richardson, Clifton Richardson and Jamal Freeman and a host of cousins, other loving relatives, and friends.
