

I am home in Heaven dear ones;
Oh, so happy and bright!

There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;

I am now at peace forever.
Safely home in Heaven at last.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand,
Do it now, while life remaineth -
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;

Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh the joy to see you come!

Life Reflections

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

Psalm 90:10

Hattie Mae Jefferson Thompson, 82, entered her heavenly rest, Friday, September 3, 2021, at CMC-Main, Charlotte, North Carolina. She was born in Cleveland County, North Carolina on December 2, 1938, to the late Roosevelt Jefferson and Mary Jane McCluney Jefferson.

Hattie was a graduate of Lincoln Academy High School. She retired from the Retail Industry. She was a retail worker at Mr. K's Dress Shop, downtown Gastonia, NC, for many years. She worked along side her sister, Betty, whom most people thought was her twin.

Hattie was a saved, faithful, lifelong member of Shady Grove Baptist Church, Kings Mountain, NC. She was a member of the Adult Choir and served on the Culinary Committee for many years, where she was awarded a plaque of appreciation for her fifty plus years of dedicated services.

Hattie was a member of a poplar family Chortette Group called the "Jillettes"

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Grady Thompson and four siblings, Virginia Jefferson Hill, Melvin Jefferson, Jasper Jefferson, and Roosevelt Jefferson, Jr.

Hattie leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter, Teretha Moore Young of Gastonia, NC, her sister, Betty Jefferson Burch of Gastonia, NC, one brother, John E. Jefferson (Wyoming) of Kings Mountain, NC, a host of nieces, nephews of which she was a mother figure to.

Hattie Mae, as most called her, will be greatly missed by all who knew her. May she rest in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
