A Beautiful Woman

A beautiful
woman with a golden heart,
Kept her family close and was never far apart,
Shared her love and her kindness with everyone near,
We will cherish our memories of you, Mom, Grandma, and Auntie dear.

Summers under the tree my cousins and me, wrapping butter cookies in napkins for bible school, singing in the choir, attending Sunday School and Church, Oh, I mustn't forget working in the flower bed and garden my dear

Our childhoods were filled with laughter and glee,
Irma and Tyrone would surely agree,
Your door was always open for anyone who came by,
You wore a welcoming smile and sparkle in your eye

Remembering the aroma of your stew beef and sweet potato pies,
You taught me how to make them, but without your hand,
It doesn't taste the same,

You never spoke an ill word, toward those who wronged you,
Your words I will always remember, "GOD KNOWS"

We will always love you and words cannot explain,
How we feel now you are no longer here,

You shared 60+ years with the love of your life,
Now our dad, granddad, & uncle is reunited with his beautiful woman,
Our beautiful mom, grandmother, and Auntie...His wife.
