MONUMENTAL LESSONS

The historic Lewis & Clark Expedition Into the Unknown was an incredible feat of exploration, leadership and success in the face of huge unimaginable challenges and against all odds. No other journey had such an influence on the destiny of our country. Using the perilous Expedition as a backdrop, this program helps leaders prepare themselves to face the rapid-fire opportunities, possibilities and challenges of the unknown future.

HISTORICAL SETTING

Join us as we embark on our own journey of discovery at one of the important locations along the expedition route - view an ancient buffalo jump, tour the Missouri River and visit the first spectacular Great Fall. Experience these great leadership lessons through the eyes of Lewis & Clark and their intrepid team.

WORLD-RENOVNG FACULTY

Minneapolis-based experts Jack Uldrich and Jeff Appelquist have taken business leaders on learning expeditions based upon Lewis & Clark’s Expedition for over seven years.

Uldrich, a former Naval intelligence officer, is a futurist, consultant and founder of The School of Unlearning. Appelquist, a former Marine, lawyer and corporate manager at retailers Target and Best Buy, is a consultant and leadership expert. Both are also award-winning writers. Jack Uldrich states, “For organizations and leaders looking to take advantage of tomorrow’s unknowable environment by both discovering their future and creating it, this is the perfect leadership program.”

Let the lessons of the historic Lewis & Clark expedition enhance your leadership journey as you face the unknown.
Journey of Discovery

Today’s still unknown future will change the way we do business and with whom, how life is lived and how personal success will be achieved. How will you lead into this future?

Pivotal themes of Imagining a Different Future, Portaging into the Unknown and Creating a Lasting Legacy come alive in this 2.5 day program. Meriwether Lewis and William Clark’s 1804 expedition into the unchartered territory provides an optimal context for discovery.

The events of the Lewis and Clark Expedition with the Corps of Discovery provide us today with insights and examples of:

- Shared leadership and mapping new territory for others to follow
- Thinking and preparing how to go into the unknown
- Combining strengths, learning from differences to build one of the greatest teams in history
- Succeeding through clear and effective communication
- Leading self and others for resilience
- Confronting and dealing effectively with ambiguity
- Making critical decisions in uncertainty
- Embracing odd, new possibilities
- Mapping new territory for others to follow
- Ensuring a lasting legacy for future generations

Key objectives include:

- Understand the important mindsets and attitudes needed for leading into the future
- Learn about critical leadership skills and behaviors for encountering future challenges and opportunities
- Develop your sense of personal leadership legacy as you look into the unknown
