Experience the Natural Effects of Magnet Therapy

For centuries, many cultures have practiced the art of magnet therapy. They believe that magnetic currents increase blood flow to targeted areas to aid the body's natural healing process.* Now you can experience the power of magnet therapy with the Weslo Magnet Therapy Kit.

*The magnets in these products may or may not exhibit the same properties as those studied.

Weslo Uses High Quality Magnets

The Weslo Magnet Therapy Kit's ceramic magnets are made from the strongest material available—a mixture of strontium carbonate and iron oxide. The magnets are meticulously ground to size with a diamond grinding wheel. Each magnet has a gauss rating of 800 for maximum effectiveness.
