

Jesus said to [Thomas], “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

JOHN 20:29

The Importance of Trust

ANN M. GARRIDO

We can readily understand Thomas’ insistence upon seeing things with his own eyes. Would you believe it if someone told you that a friend whose funeral you had attended was now walking through walls?

At some time or other, all of us have been tricked into believing something we later found out was untrue and remember how foolish we felt. Haven’t our parents told us not to believe everything we hear? Haven’t our teachers taught us to do our own research? Doubt serves a valuable purpose, and we would be naïve to disregard it.

At the same time, we know that doubt can become a way of life, overstepping its usefulness. During the COVID pandemic, for example, some refused to believe even the most knowledgeable medical voices in the nation. Like Thomas, they insisted that unless they’d “done their own research,” they wouldn’t believe. Such a stance ignores that unless you are a scientist working in a medical lab, even “your own research” will be based on an act of belief that what you are reading of others’ research is correct. Doubt is good, but only in combination with a healthy dose of humility. In the end, the world turns on an axis of trust.

At the close of today’s gospel, Jesus names as “blessed” those able to discern what is true and believe not only because of what they have seen with their own eyes but also because of what they have heard through their ears from sources worthy of their trust. ●

Reflect

When has doubt served a purpose, and when has it gotten in my way?

Dear Padre

April 12, 2026

We are told that when we receive the Holy Eucharist, our venial sins are washed away. Does the same thing happen when we receive spiritual communion?

Yes, and there are many other ways that venial sins can be forgiven. First and foremost is each of the sacraments of reconciliation: baptism, Eucharist, penance, and anointing of the sick. In addition to the sacraments, an Act of Contrition will also suffice, as will a simple prayer of intercession, such as, "Lord, Jesus, Son of the Living God, have mercy on me, a sinner." Forgiveness of venial sins is directly dependent on one thing: the sanctifying grace of the Holy Spirit at work in our world and in each one of us. Forgiveness is not merited; it is a gift, and, as a gift, it requires only that we ask and gratefully receive.

It is true that we are all sinful. We are also all blessed. As wonderful as forgiveness is, and there truly is no greater gift of God's love, an equally wonderful gift is gratitude. Perhaps, with every Act of Contrition that we pray, we should also offer a prayer of thanksgiving. It might help us find balance if we remind ourselves not only how we may not have measured up but also that we are blessed and graced. ●

THANK YOU: Gwen Wren, her children and extended family would like to thank all of those who supported and prayed for Bob during the final weeks and days of his earthly life. A special thanks to those who made his funeral Mass and burial so special, including Fr. Stephen, the choir, and the Good Neighbor committee.

EUCHARIST ADORATION: There is no greater profession of faith possible for a human being to make here on earth than during prayer before the Holy Eucharist; so we ask, why should prayer before Christ in the Blessed Sacrament be so powerful in obtaining miracles of conversion – is because it is prayer rising from faith in the cardinal mystery of Christianity. Dear Parish Family,

Greetings in the Risen Lord and a continued blessed Easter to you all! As many of you know, the Friday after Easter is when Bishop Taylor announces new priest assignments for our diocese, and I am among those being reassigned this year. As of July 1st, 2026, I will conclude my time as pastor of our three parishes and school. Bishop Taylor has appointed Fr. Samy, a priest of the Diocese of Nellore, India, and current pastor of Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Church and School in Benton, as your next pastor.¹ I know you will welcome him with the same faith and generosity you have always shown me. I have been assigned as pastor of Our Lady of the Holy Souls Catholic Church and School in Little Rock. I was surprised when Bishop Taylor shared this change with me, but I trust in his wisdom in caring for the parishes and priests of our diocese.

While I am saddened to leave our three parishes and school, I am deeply grateful for the many blessings and graces God has bestowed on me in the seven years I have been your pastor. As one wise, more experienced priest told me, one of the hardest transitions in a priest's life is leaving his first parish where he is pastor, and I am certainly finding that to be true.

As stated before, this change does not take effect until July 1st, so we still have a few months together. I look forward to making the most of this time with you. And let us remember that, ultimately, our faith and hope rest in our Risen Lord Jesus Christ and in the Holy Catholic Church He has given us – not in any one priest or pastor, but in Him who remains with us always.

May God continue to bless all of you throughout this Easter season and beyond! Please know that you have been, and will always remain, in my prayers!

In Christ,

Rev. Stephen J. Elser, Ph.L., V.F.
