To the Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The Archdiocese is truly blessed by the service of many holy and dedicated priests, especially our retired priests, who have served our Archdiocese so faithfully. We currently have over fifty retired priests, many who continue to serve in our archdiocese in many ways.

The annual retirement collection on Good Shepherd Sunday, April 24-25, 2021, is used to support the medical and retirement expenses of these priests.

Your participation in this collection is a way to say “thank you” to our retired Archdiocesan priests for their many years of service to us, the Church of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. I assure you that your support will benefit the priests for many years to come.

Please join me daily in prayer for vocations to the priesthood that others may follow in their footsteps to give their lives to be good shepherds in leading the flock of Christ.

With gratitude for your generosity and wishing you God’s blessings in this Easter Season, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading Acts 3: 13-15,17-19

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter said to the people:
"The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence when he had decided to release him. You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. (7a) Lord, let your face shine on us.
When I call, answer me, O my just God,
you who relieve me when I am in distress;
have pity on me, and hear my prayer!

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.
Know that the LORD does wonders for his faithful one; the LORD will hear me when I call upon him.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.
O LORD, let the light of your countenance shine upon us! You put gladness into my heart.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.
As soon as I lie down, I fall peacefully asleep,
for you alone, O LORD, bring security to my dwelling.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

Second Reading 1 John 2:1-5a

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments. Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

Luke 24:32

R. Alleluia, alleluia.
Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us;
make our hearts burn while you speak to us.
R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 24: 35-48

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke Glory to you, O Lord.

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread. While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them. He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

St. Joseph's Altar News

God revealed to St. Angela Merici that she must never shut her eyes to the needs of those around her, and never shut her heart to God's call. Are you being called? Do you hear that little voice in your mind that says, "Go see what it's all about, see if your help is needed, be a part of this...". If you are hearing that voice, it is St. Joseph calling you to him. For whatever reason, he wants you to share in this joyous labor of love and devotion. Come, join in the building of this year's St. Joseph Altar, you may be changed in ways you can't imagine! You can pick up a Schedule of Events for upcoming cooking making, rosary making, etc. activities in the church hallways or check the calendar for the upcoming workshop dates/times. Please join us for some fun and fellowship! If you have any questions, please contact Janet Cruppi at 504 338 2957, or Renee Lauland at 504-371-2101.

Memorial Altar Flower Arrangements

We invite you to sponsor floral arrangements for the upcoming Altar on Saturday, May 1, 2021. It's a beautiful way to honor loved ones, both living and deceased. Flowers will be blessed and used to decorate the altar. The cost of each arrangement is $35.00. If you would like to donate a floral arrangement, please complete the form below and return it in a sealed envelope, along with a check or cash, either through the mass collection basket or our Parish Office by Saturday, April 24th..

The arrangements will be available for you to pick up on Sunday, May 2, 2021, from 1-3 p.m. in the gym. Any arrangements not picked up by 3 p.m. will be placed in the Blessed Mother's Rosary Garden.

Pro Life Ministry

Pro-Life Meditations of the Rosary Glorious Mysteries—The Ascension

By ascending to the Father's throne, Christ takes our human nature, given to us in the womb, to the heights of heaven. He shows us that human beings are made to be raised to heaven, not thrown in the garbage. Let us pray that the world may learn this truth and reject abortion. Let's all pray and ask the Holy Spirit to give you wisdom and guidance. Be grounded in the truth that life begins at conception and ends in natural death.

St. Angela Merici Prayer Line

The St. Angela Merici Prayer Line is a powerful and important way for us to bond as a faith community. Please send prayer requests no later than Friday of each week so they can be included on the prayer line going out that weekend. Or, if you would like to simply join us in praying for those in our parish, please contact Beth Kliebert at bbk9094@gmail.com.

Archdiocese of New Orleans Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our Archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

MEMORIAL OF ANSELM, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Love the questions

How would you define the term theology? Google it and you find it described as the critical study of the nature of God or the divine. Saint Anselm (1033-1109) said it another way: "Theology is faith seeking understanding." Every time you try to understand how God allows suffering, or wonder how it is that God loves every human being, or try to understand if God truly hears your prayers, you are doing the work of theology. As a French Benedictine monk and later archbishop of Canterbury, Anselm was a wise and learned teacher who challenged the secular power of kings. Your life may not seem extraordinary, but the pursuit of knowledge about God belongs to you as well. Don't be afraid of the questions. Ask for grace to allow the questions to help your faith grow.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 8:1b-8; John 6:35-40 (275).

"Everyone who . . . believes in him (the Son) may have eternal life."
