PARISH NEWS

Letter from Fr. Beau

Dear Parishioners,

At some point last week, it hit me that we are less than a month away from the start of the school year. I think that the older I get the faster summers seem to move!

During the summer we plan summer maintenance, renovations and building projects that are a challenge to accomplish during the school year. Last week, I touched on four of those projects.

Our building projects, while they are an important support to our mission, are not our main mission. Our main mission as a school is to lead our kids in a relationship with Jesus, so that they can know Him, love Him, respond to Him in their lives, and ultimately live with Him in Heaven.

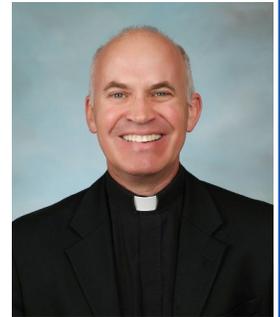

Each day at St. Angela, our kids pray, they study the faith, they engage all academic disciplines, they live in a dynamic faith community in school, and they learn to volunteer as leaders and as part of a team. They grow into greatness and lives are changed.

Our school year starts on August 11th. As we begin, I would ask you to pray for our students, their families, our administration, faculty and staff (and their families too). I would specifically ask that every day we pray an Our Father, a Hail Mary and a Glory Be for the mission of our school. It takes about a minute, but the power of that minute means a lot to our school day.

Thank you for your strong support! Know that Fr. Lawrence and I pray for you every day.

“Amen, I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.” -Mt. 17:20.

Rebuild Center Hygiene Bags

Members of our St. Vincent DePaul and SAM CYO gathered this past week to assemble hygiene bags for the Rebuild Center. Thanks to the extremely generous support of St. Angela Merici Parishioners, over 1000 bags were assembled doubling the amount from last year!

RCIA, The Rite of Christian Initiation, classes will begin on Thursday, September 15

at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Office.

The class is for persons in need of baptism, persons baptized in another Christian faith but interested in becoming Roman Catholic, and persons baptized Catholic in need of First Communion and/or Confirmation. Classes meet weekly until Holy Week, at which point formal reception into the Catholic Church and participation in the sacraments first occurs.

If you, or anyone you know, may be interested in joining please contact Deacon Tom at tkratochvil@archdiocese-no.org, or call the parish office at (504) 835-0324

FAITH FORMATION

Letter from Fr. Lawrence

As I take upon the noble ministry of praying and encouraging religious vocations at St. Angela Merici Parish and beyond, I thank you, dear parents, for being the first promoters of religious vocations. I also invite you to join our pastor Fr. Beau, I, and the Christian Community here at SAM to pray for vocations and promote them by encouraging your children to hear the gentle voice of Christ speaking in their hearts and the daily life situations that call for more laborers in the Lord's vineyard. By way of example, here is a concise overview of my Priesthood vocation story.

The Consolata Missionaries stimulated my vocation to the priesthood from Turin, Italy serving in Meru Diocese from 1911 until today. They live a charism and spirituality on consolation that their founder Blessed Joseph Allamano received from the Mother of Jesus, whom he experienced as "Mary the consoler." The Consolata Missionaries are in some parts of Africa, Asia, Latin America, Europe, and Canada. They mainly focus on helping the poor through education opportunities, training the Catechists for collaboration in the ministry, running the parish, and more.

When I graduated from high school, I took two years of discernment through retreat camps prepared by the Consolata priests serving in the home parish, prayer events in the parish and diocese, attending Sunday Mass, and participating in youth social activities in the parish. These events provided the exposure and the opportunities to know and observe them closely and critically understand their work.

Their impact on the lives of Christians and families, through frequent visits for dinner, Small Christian Communities, and our conversations around a dinner table, I was inspired to a priestly vocation. Although I had already received a university admission, I decided to enter the seminary for the priesthood, and the journey continued through June 2013 when I got ordained a priest in the Catholic Diocese of Meru in Kenya.

I live my priesthood with joy, peace, and love from the Lord and Christians. Nonetheless, the challenges along the journey have created a deeper appreciation and conviction that in every vocation, one is not alone; there is always accompaniment by the Lord who calls and who demonstrates his salvific vocation for us in his incarnate and ultimate love. That love remains displayed in Capital letters, CROSS! The priest and Christians celebrate that love in every Eucharist. Thus, every vocation, whether religious vocation, marriage life, or single consecration, entails resting on the cross and not abandoning it.

Dear young people of SAM, is the gentle voice of the Lord calling you to rest on his cross? Or are you not sure which way the Lord is leading you? Let us begin a conversation around these questions with Joy and peace.

Fr. Lawrence

We invite families and individuals to sign up for the Vocation Cross ministry. Each week, a designated family/individual will receive the Vocation Cross during Sunday Mass, committing to pray for an increase to vocations for one week at home. To sign up, scan the QR code below.

Parishioners can also sign up by calling the Parish Office at (504) 835-0324

Family Faith Formation

Registration is now open for our 2022-2023 Faith Formation Program. This program meets the faith formation requirement for parish children in grade K-7 who are not currently enrolled in a Catholic school.

It consists of monthly in-person gatherings, typically taking place on the first Monday of every month September-May. These sessions are for BOTH parents and their children and will last approximately from 6:30-8:00 p.m. During this time students will be divided into age-appropriate classes where they will be given a lesson by a volunteer catechist. At the same time, parents will form a separate group where they will be catechized, encouraged, and equipped so as to be able to successfully instruct their children in the faith at home for the remainder of that month. Additionally, each family will be assigned a mentor catechist who will serve as both a resource and support.

During the remaining weeks, families will complete weekly lessons together at home. These lessons are intended to be interactive, filled with games, Scripture quotes, crafts, lives of the saints, etc., and are designed to reinforce and deepen your family's understanding and appreciation of our Catholic faith. Families also are given options, allowing them to choose the lessons/activities which best fit the needs of their particular children.

Small Businesses

We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Draw near to your servants, O Lord, and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness, that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide, you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
