PARISH NEWS

Letter from Fr. Beau

Dear Parishioners,

On Thursday, September 15th, our parish is starting a men's gathering called "That Man is You". The gathering originated out of Houston, Texas, and there are currently over 600 parishes in the United States that are participating across the country. There are multiple parishes in our area starting "That Man is You" in September, including St. Francis Xavier, St. Catherine, St. Clement and St. Dominic.

"That Man is You" respects family time by meeting at 5:45am. It begins with breakfast – biscuits, eggs, bacon, sausage, coffee, etc. After breakfast, a video will be presented, followed by table discussions about the video. The morning wraps up between 7:00am and 7:15am.

Our parishioner, Greg Lormand is leading the core team for "That Man is You". Greg will be speaking at all Masses this weekend.

If you are a husband, father, grandfather or a single man – if you are looking to challenge yourself to become who God has called you to be – if you are looking for more – "That Man is You" may be for you. I invite you to the Kern Center next Thursday, September 15th at 5:45am for the official opening of "That Man is You".

Come hungry!

Fr. Beau

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Just Look at the Cross

The common theme of today's readings is forgiveness. The Gospel is one familiar to us all, and Paul in the second reading highlights his story of receiving God's mercy. But the first reading might cause us to wonder if God was always so forgiving. God and Moses come across like a couple of parents deciding whether they should punish their children. One, the Lord, points out how bad Israel has been. The other, Moses, points out how good God is, in the promise to make them a great nation. The important point is that God relented and forgave the people. In each case, great sins are forgiven--not because the people deserved it, but because they were loved. My favorite line in the second reading is "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners" (1 Timothy 1:15)--not to find the wealthiest people to build his kingdom, or the nicest, or the holiest; he came to save sinners. The Pharisees and scribes did not get this. That was one of the reasons they wanted to kill Jesus. And yet, when they did just that, Jesus' death on the cross brought forgiveness for us all. Remember the story in Genesis 18, of Abraham bargaining with God not to destroy Sodom if he could find a few good people? Maybe he should have "reminded" God of that divine mercy instead of hoping to find enough good people to spare the town. Sometimes we can't believe that God would love us so much as to forgive any sin. Just look at the cross if you need a reminder.

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of Today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.
