Transfiguration of the Lord August 6th

Christian commemoration of the occasion upon which Jesus Christ took three of his disciples, Peter, James, and John, up on a mountain, where Moses and Elijah appeared and Jesus was transfigured, his face and clothes becoming dazzlingly bright (Mark 9:2–13; Matthew 17:1–13; Luke 9:28–36).

The festival celebrates the revelation of the eternal glory of the Second Person of the Trinity, which was normally veiled during Christ's life on earth.

According to tradition, the event took place on Mount Tabor.

Respect Life

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

may have prophesied about the times we are living in over 72 years ago.

On January 26, 1947, he asked in a radio broadcast

“Why is it that so few realize the seriousness of our present crisis?”

He then answered this question by stating

“Partly because men do not want to believe their own times are wicked, partly because it involves too much self-accusation, and principally because they have no standards outside of themselves by which to measure their times...”

“Only those who live by faith really know what is happening in the world.

The great masses without faith are unconscious of the destructive processes going on.” ... “The chaos of our times is the strongest negative argument that could ever be advanced for Christianity.”

The Archbishop also stated that as for those who stand up for the faith, for pro-life, for marriage,

“Evil must come to reject us, to despise us, to hate us, to persecute us, and then shall we define our loyalties, affirm our fidelities and state on whose side we stand.”

He also reminds us that after “Our Divine Lord had pictured the catastrophes that would fall upon a morally disordered civilization... He did not say ‘Fear’, but when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise you heads because your redemption is at hand.” (Luke 21:28)

Finally, Archbishop Sheen reveals that there is only one path out of the chaotic conditions. “The only way out of this crisis is spiritual, because the trouble is not in the way we keep our books, but in the way we keep our souls. The time is nearer than you think.”

He then advises us to pray to St. Michael and to turn especially to Our Lady who said at Fatima,

“In the end, My Immaculate Heart will triumph.”

God Bless The U.S.A.
Song by Lee Greenwood

If tomorrow all the things were gone
I worked for all my life
And I had to start again
With just my children and my wife
I'd thank my lucky stars
To be livin' here today
'Cause the flag still stands for freedom
And they can't take that away
And I'm proud to be an American
Where at least I know I'm free
And I won't forget the men who died
Who gave that right to me
And I'd gladly stand up
Next to you and defend her still today
'Cause there ain't no doubt I love this land
God bless the USA
From the lakes of Minnesota
To the hills of Tennessee
Across the plains of Texas
From sea to shining sea
From Detroit down to Houston
And New York to L.A.
Well, there's pride in every American heart
And it's time we stand and say
That I'm proud to be an American
Where at least I know I'm free
And I won't forget the men who died
Who gave that right to me
And I'd gladly stand up
Next to you and defend her still today
'Cause there ain't no doubt I love this land (love this land)
God bless the USA
And I'm proud to be an American
Where at least I know I'm free
And I won't forget the men who died
Who gave that right to me
And I'd gladly stand up
Next to you and defend her still today
'Cause there ain't no doubt I love this land (love this land)
God bless the USA

Gospel Today

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | John 6:24-35

The people following Jesus are looking for miracles like the bread and fish they had to eat, but they are also looking for something to believe in. Jesus tells them the truth, to believe in the One sent by God, and says "I am the bread of life".

©2021 Bon Venture Services, LLC

They don't understand Jesus means eternal life, not food to sustain life. The people near Jesus are looking for a sign, like the manna "bread from heaven" their forefathers were given.

Underlined words above are answers to the puzzle.
