TEARDROPS LITURGY

It seems we all have loved ones who no longer practice the Faith and have left the Church. As heart-breaking as it is, we must persevere in praying for their return. The new Tear Drops Liturgy will be offered twice a year for us to gather and pray together in petition that those we love come back to Jesus and His Holy Catholic Church. The next liturgy will take place on

MONDAY, AUGUST 17TH
AT 6:30PM HERE AT ST. EAS

The short liturgy is a beautiful mix of scripture readings, music, and time to prayerfully petition our Lord to bring them 'home'. We will write down the names of those we love who are lost and place those names in a basket at the foot of the cross to be prayed over. Put it on your calendar and plan on participating in this powerful prayer together.

MOVIE NIGHT

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9
6:00 PM

Sign up in the parish office

In honor of the feast of St. Faustina on October 5th, we will host a movie night at the parish. We will feature the film FAUSTINA: LOVE AND MERCY. This movie was released last year for a short time and was very well-received. If you missed seeing it, this is your chance!

We will have refreshments available for purchase. There is no cost to see the movie, but you must sign up in the parish office as only 50 people may attend (diocesan directive).

This docudrama on the Divine Mercy and the mission of Sr. Faustina Kowalska, reveals previously unknown facts and recently disclosed documents that shed new light on the truth of the Divine Mercy message.

As many know, the Divine Mercy is a devotion to Jesus associated with the apparitions of Jesus to Sr. Faustina in Poland in the 1930s. Jesus urged Sr. Faustina to paint an image according to the pattern that she had seen, and requested to have the image venerated, first in the sisters' chapel, and then throughout the world. The venerated image under this Christological title refers to what Sr. Faustina's diary describes as "God's loving mercy" towards all people, especially for sinners.

Scientific analysis included in the film indicates that Sr. Faustina indeed saw the Lord. A group of experts found letters of Fr. Michał Sopoćko (Sr. Faustina's confessor) and while browsing forgotten archives, they found additional previously unknown documents. To a large extent, "Love and Mercy: Faustina" can contribute to fulfilling Jesus' promise that "the spark that will prepare the world for My final coming" will come from Poland (Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, 1732).

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY
GRIEF SUPPORT

Suffering through this pandemic can be especially difficult following the loss of a loved one. We find ourselves even more isolated and alone. If you are struggling, we are here to listen and offer help. Sometimes just being and talking with others that are experiencing the same feelings can be a great relief and help.

OUR FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

THE SPIRITUAL EXERCISES
OF ST. IGNATIUS

by Saint Ignatius of Loyola

These Spiritual Exercises were written by Ignatius of Loyola, a theologian, priest, and founder of the Society of Jesus, in the sixteenth century. They are Catholic prayers, reflections, meditations, mental exercises, and directions designed to be read and carried out over a 28 to 30 day time period. These exercises are for Catholics and non-Catholics alike and grew out of Ignatius's own desire to seek God's will and to follow Christ no matter what the cost. Ignatius's intent was that the exercises would help others to discern God's will and to set the world on fire for Christ!

THE FIRE WITHIN

Today's world makes it very difficult to live with the virtue of purity no matter your age or sex. The world bombards us with images, movies, songs, shows and so many other things that take our minds to places they should not go! Talk to any priest and he will tell you how rampant pornography is and how frequently it is confessed. Especially for our young people who have computers and smart phones— impurity is only a click away! Sometimes it seems like there is nothing that can be done about it and that we are fighting a battle that is almost impossible to win! But the beauty of the Catholic faith is that there is A LOT that can be done. One powerful practice is to enroll in the Angelic Warfare Confraternity. When one becomes part of the Confraternity and practices the devotions, great graces will be obtained assisting the member in purity in body, mind and soul. Fr. Kaim who is a priest designated by the Dominicans to enroll people in the confraternity will be here saying Mass for us on Saturday, September 26th at 8:45AM. Immediately after Mass, he will enroll anyone who wishes to do so, into the Confraternity (in the church). On that day, The Divine Mercy Chaplet will move back to 9:45AM. Some of you may recall that Fr. Kaim was here some 7 years ago to enroll members! If you are already enrolled, come to renew your promises! If purity is not a virtue that you struggle with, you may also enroll yourself on behalf of a friend or family member that does struggle with purity! Honestly, everyone either needs to enroll or knows someone that does....so don't let this opportunity pass by. You must be in High School or older to enroll. The cost for the kit that you will need is $10. The kit contains a medal, booklet, registration packet and numerous other items. You must sign up and pay in the office no later than September 1. Contact me at X230 for more information! Check out a separate article in this bulletin for further explanation about his confraternity.

THE ANGELIC WARFARE CONFRATERNITY

The Angelic Warfare Confraternity is a supernatural fellowship of men and women bound to one another in love and dedicated to pursuing and promoting chastity together under the powerful patronage of St. Thomas Aquinas and the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Confraternity is an official apostolate of the Dominican Order.

St. Thomas Aquinas is a powerful patron for the virtue of chastity because in his own life he received special graces enabling him to lead a chaste life. This great saint was born in 1226AD, the youngest son of a noble Italian family. His parents desired Thomas to become a Benedictine monk hoping that one day he would become the abbot (leader) of a prestigious Benedictine monastery. It seems that God had another plan. When Thomas was a teenager, the monks sent him to study theology in Naples where Thomas became acquainted with Dominican friars. At this time, the Dominican Order was a young order and had little social prestige. St. Thomas became extremely interested in Dominican life and joined the order against the wishes of his parents. His parents so vehemently opposed his decision to become a Dominican, that they had him arrested by his own brothers and jailed in one of the family castles. They would not release Thomas until he relented. They made numerous attempts to persuade him to change his mind. For an entire year he refused to yield to their request. Instead Thomas quietly studied the Bible and grew in wisdom and knowledge. In a final attempt to change Thomas' mind, his brothers formulated one final effort. They were certain that a physical temptation would drive Thomas to break his vow of chastity, after which he would surely abandon this religious vocation. So, one night the brothers brought a scantily clad prostitute into the room where St. Thomas was being held. Their plan did not work as they intended. Immediately, St. Thomas snatched a burning brand from the hearth, drove the woman out of the room, slammed the door behind her and emblazoned the sign of the cross on the door with the red-hot brand. He then fell to his knees in tears of thanksgiving and prayed to be preserved in his chastity, purity, and intention to live the religious life.

According to the archives relating to his canonization, Thomas fell into a mystical sleep and had a vision. Two angels came to him and bound a cord around his waist, saying, "On God's behalf, we gird you with the girdle of chastity, a girdle which no attack will ever destroy." Many witnesses who knew Thomas at different points in his life, all testified to the great degree of purity and chastity he demonstrated. The angels' gift preserved St. Thomas from sexual temptation and bestowed upon him an enduring purity that guided his thoughts and actions. Pope Pius XI wrote, "If St. Thomas had not been victorious when his chastity was in peril, it is very probable that the Church would never have had her Angelic Doctor."

Over his lifetime, St. Thomas' conduct revealed that he had indeed received a special grace of chastity and purity— a grace that he desires to share with others through the communion of saints.

After the death of St. Thomas Aquinas, the cord of purity which he wore was preserved by the brethren and made available for public veneration in the Italian city of Vercelli (today the cord resides in the Dominican Church in Chieri, Italy). Long before the Confraternity was officially established, people would come to see the cord of St. Thomas and would pray for increased purity. Some those seeking help with the virtue brought their own cord to touch with the relic of St. Thomas. They would wear this cord asking St. Thomas for his prayers for chastity on their behalf. Most people consider Fr. Francis Duerwerders, OP, to be the first to organize the devotion as it comes to us today. In the mid 17th century, he established it as a Confraternity at the Catholic University in Louvain, Belgium. The Confraternity grew and spread throughout Europe and was officially founded for the entire Church by Pope Benedict XII in 1277. It is one of three ancient Confraternities of the Dominican Order.

Many saints, as well as those on their way to sainthood, were members of the Confraternity. St. Aloysius Gonzaga, Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, Blessed Columba Rieti and Blessed Stephana Quinzan (who actively promoted the Confraternity among women) all belonged to this Confraternity.

St. Thomas Aquinas becomes an official personal patron of each Confraternity member, the treasure chest of graces merited by the Dominican Order is opened up to all in the Confraternity to draw upon, and the prayers of thousands of other members of the Confraternity come to the aid of all the other members every day. People often say they no longer feel isolated in the pursuit of chastity, but tied to others in the same pursuit. They often say they feel stronger and more equipped for the struggle.

Regular attendance at Sunday Mass does not automatically make one a registered member of the parish. We hope you will become a member of our parish family!

Moving?

If you are moving, please notify the parish office at (815)459-3033 with any changes of address or phone number(s). This will help ensure that our parish records are accurate.

Website

Please refer to the parish website elizabethannseton.org for additional information and on-line bulletins. If you would like a parish event or ministry information posted on the site, please send a detailed email to: website@elizabethannseton.org.

Weekly Bulletin Articles

All articles for the weekly bulletin must be submitted via email by 12:00PM on the Wednesday a week before the desired publication weekend (10 days prior to publication date). Articles should be e-mailed directly to: parishbulletin@elizabethannseton.org.
