Respect Life Society

We congratulate all the 25th and 50th Wedding Anniversary Couples. May God Bless them and give them many more years of happiness.

Prayer for Marriage

Spirit of God, Giver of abundant graces, awaken our minds and hearts to the truth that You share an integral part of the marriage bond between husband and wife. Help us to truly understand how our marriage is a symbol, a sacrament of Your intimate love with the Father and Son, so that we can appreciate the sanctity not only of our own marriage, but of all married couples. Let us not hesitate to seek recourse to You in the times we most need Your graces. Give us the strength to serve selflessly, to love joyfully, and to persevere confidently as we make our way together back to our true home with You. Amen. (adapted from the Leaflet Missal Company)

Mass for Expectant Parents will be held on Sun., October 28th at the 10:45am Mass. Please register at the Parish House 845-628-2006 by October 23rd.

Prayer for our Troops

Almighty God and Father, hold our servicemen and women in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time and need. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen

Ask Sr. Rose

Why is incense used during the Mass of Christian Burial?

Incense is used during the funeral rites as a sign of honor to the body of the deceased, which through baptism became the temple of the Holy Spirit. Incense is also used as a sign of the community's prayers for the deceased rising to the throne of God and as a sign of farewell.

High School Students who want to receive the sacrament of Confirmation and/or Holy Communion and /or Baptism please contact: Margaret Scarfi 845-621-7000, email mscarfi@gmail.com.

Classes will be held Saturday mornings at 10:30am beginning October 20th.

Love of Mary

"Never be afraid of loving the Blessed Virgin too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did."

-St. Maximilian Kolbe

The Mass for the Conferral of The Anointing of the Sick

*Saturday, October 20, 2018
12 noon – Social Hall
Followed by a reception*

Who May be anointed?

1. Those who have a chronic illness
2. Those who are of advanced age
3. Those undergoing surgery
4. Those who suffer from anxiety or emotional problems
5. Sick children who have sufficient use of reason

"Is there anyone sick among you? He/she should ask for the Priests of the Church. They in turn are to pray over him/her, anointing him/her with oil in the name of the Lord."

(The Epistle of St. James 5:14)

Today in Rome Pope Francis Canonized Pope Paul VI
and
Archbishop Oscar Romero

St. Pope Paul VI – September 26, 1897 – August 6, 1978

As Cardinal Archbishop of Milan, Italy, he helped in preparing Vatican II and participated in its first sessions. When he was elected Pope in June, 1963, he immediately decided to continue the council. During his Papacy, he met with Patriarch Athenagoras, the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, in the Holy Land in January, 1964. The result of that historic meeting was the revoking of the excommunications that predecessors had made in 1054. Paul VI wrote seven encyclicals; his last one on 1968 on Human Life – Humanae Vitae. Even though Humanae Vitae has garnered much of the discussion over his legacy, Pope Francis has stated that there's another document that is "the greatest pastoral document written to date" Paul VI's 1975 exhortation on evangelization. Evangelii Nuntiandi (On proclaiming the Gospel). His greatest accomplishment was the completion of and the implementation of Vatican II. Its decisions about liturgy were the first ones noticed by most Catholics, but its other documents – especially the ones about ecumenism, inter faith relations, divine revelation, religious liberty, the Church's self-understanding and the Church's work with the entire human family- have become the Catholic Church's road map since 1965.

St. Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero – Martyr
August 15, 1917 – March 24, 1980

Today Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero is canonized a saint/Martyr, not just for the poor and oppressed of El Salvador, but for all who share their suffering. Archbishop Romero was the head of the Archdiocese of San Salvador, El Salvador. He was gunned down during Mass at the Divine Providence Hospital, (which provides palliative care for people suffering from cancer), a day after telling an army made up of mostly peasants that they were killing their own people. "No soldier is obliged to obey an order that is contrary to the will of God," he said. He was shot through the heart by gunmen linked to a right-wing death squad. After saying "one must not love oneself so much as to avoid getting involved in the risks of life that history demands of us, and those who fend off danger will lose their lives. "His death is considered by the Catholic Church to have been in "Odium Fidei," meaning in hatred of the faith. He was the voice of the Voiceless in El Salvador. He defended the people from the repression of a Military government. The Archbishop once said, "They can kill me, but not the voice of Justice."

St. John the Evangelist Breakfast Run - New York City • SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20TH •

It's that time of year again! SJTE Parish will be going on a Breakfast Run to feed the homeless in NYC on Saturday, October 20th. With your help, we will be providing food, toiletries and clothing for those in need (approx. 75 people). Would you please consider donating? The following items are needed:

New Items: Men's Medium, Large and XL undergarments (including thermal shirts and pants), socks, travel sized toiletries (soap, shampoo, toothbrushes, toothpaste, razors, shaving cream, deodorant)

Used Items: Size large and XL, clean/gently used men's coats, sweatshirts/sweaters, pants, back packs/canvas bags (for them to carry their belongings) hats, gloves, shoes, boots and blankets.

Food Items: Cases of water bottles, juice boxes, individualized cookies, chips, and individualized fruit cups.

Donations can be dropped off in the BREAKFAST RUN Box in the Narthex of the Church during weekend masses on October 6th, 7th, 13th and 14th.
There will also be a box in the back of the Chapel during the week.

Monetary donations will be accepted to cover the cost of egg sandwiches, coffee, paper products, etc. They can be left in the Parish House.

PLEASE DROP DONATIONS BEFORE WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17TH.

Please keep us and those we serve in your prayers!
As always, thank you for your donations and support!

Gospel Today

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Mark 10:17-30

God blesses us with many things, however, the gain of earthly possessions is not the key to eternal life. It is what we do with our treasures or how much we give to others that is important in God's eyes.

©2018 Ben Venture Services, LLC

"All things are possible for God."

Mark 10:27

What would you do? If you were the rich man in the Gospel, would you walk away from your possessions, or walk away from Jesus? God is always here to help us!
