

Mrs. Cole's Class

12 May 2020

Welcome to our last full week of Preschool! We made it! Now on to summer (which, to be honest, isn't going to look much different than now except warmer weather!)

If you haven't scheduled a time for conferences, please do so. Here is the link:

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1htcV-m4B0PtQPvufPmIyanOU-Fd55fsXH4GUKBcACqE/edit?usp=sharing>

If you haven't turned your child's shape picture in to the church, please do so by Friday, May 15. I will pick them up and read them to the kids on Monday.

I read We're Going on a Bear Hunt to the kids. If you have it read it to your kids or the author, Michael Rosen, has a YouTube video reading the story. Go check it out! And then have your kids make binoculars to use when we go on an alphabet hunt. You can do this at home as well. Make the alphabet on individual cards or sticky notes and hang them around the house. Then have them go on a hunt and have them 1. Say the name of the letter, and 2. Have them say the sound. You can also do this with numbers!

How are the sunflowers doing? I showed mine today and they are starting to sprout. I did have to replant so that may be an option for you as well.

Have a wonderful day!

Miss Cole