THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT ~ March 19, 2017

Cathedral PARISH

MADISON'S DOWNTOWN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

ABOUT OUR PARISH

The Cathedral Parish of St. Raphael was formed on July 1, 2008 by the merger of three historic parishes located within a few blocks of the Capitol Square.

The buildings of two of those historic parishes – Holy Redeemer and St. Patrick – provide the current facilities for the Cathedral Parish. Mass is offered every day in both churches. The parish rectory is at the Holy Redeemer site, while the offices are at the St. Patrick location.

Old St. Raphael Cathedral was destroyed by arson in 2005. Bishop Morlino has announced his intention to erect a new cathedral on the same site (at West Main and Fairchild). In the meantime, an outdoor Way of the Cross is located there.

Statue of St. Joseph in the Adoration Chapel of our parish. St. Joseph's Day, normally celebrated on March 19th, will be observed on Monday, March 20th, as the Third Sunday of Lent takes precedence. (Photo by Joe Ptak)

Extended Hours for Confession

Extended times for confession will be offered during the last two weeks of Lent — prior to weekday Masses, on Saturday afternoon at St Patrick, and on Monday evening of Holy Week at Holy Redeemer.

Confessions follow the regular schedule this week and next. For the last two weeks of Lent, the complete schedule for English confessions is as follows:

At Holy Redeemer Church:
Monday through Thursday, April 3rd—6th: 3:30—5:00 pm
Saturday, April 8th: 7:30—7:55 am
Monday through Wednesday April 10th—12th: 3:30—5:00 pm
Monday evening, April 10th: 6:00-8:00 pm

At St. Patrick Church:
Monday through Thursday, April 3rd—6th: 11:00 am— noon
Saturday, April 8th: 2:00—4:30 pm
Monday through Wednesday, April 10th—12th: 11:00 am—noon

Enjoy Your Parish!

Liven up your spring with beautiful music! Join fellow parishioners for the dress rehearsal of the Madison Symphony Orchestra's April concert, Colossal Piano, on Thursday, April 6th.

Meet in the church hall at Holy Redeemer around 5:45 pm for a light dinner. Comments on the program (Manfred Overture by Schumann, Concerto for Orchestra by Lutoslawski, and Piano Concerto #3 by Rachmaninoff) will be offered by Perry Allaire, choir director for the 9:00 Sunday Mass. Then we head to the Overture Center around 6:30 pm. Tickets are free; parking at Holy Redeemer; an offering will be collected for the meal. Group size limited to 15, so please RSVP to the parish office (257-5000) or Tracey Reitz (traceyareitz@gmail.com) by Wednesday, March 29th to reserve your place. Please email Tracey with any questions.

Parish Brunch Re-launch in May

According to our regular schedule, we should have had a parish brunch after the 11:00 Mass today. It was, unfortunately, not feasible to have a brunch today . . . apologies to Saint Patrick!

But look for the re-launch of parish brunches in May! We have a very fine cook in the parish willing to spearhead the effort, others who have stepped forward to help put on the meal. And we are working on a new "hospitality team" to enhance the experience as well. More people to help would be most welcome! Do you have skills in the kitchen? Do you have people skills, and would you enjoy making others feel welcome? Would you like to serve by helping with set-up and clean-up? All kinds of help are appreciated! Please call the parish office, 257-5000.

If this is your parish home and you have not yet registered as a member of the Cathedral Parish, please do one of the following:

- ask Msgr. Holmes or an usher for a Registration Form today; or
- contact the parish office (cathedral@isthmuscatholic.org or 257-5000) to request a Registration Form; or
- register online at www.isthmuscatholic.org.

••• Meet Our Candidates •••

There have been over a dozen adults who have been going through the RCIA process this year at the Cathedral Parish, preparing to receive the Sacraments of Initiation at Easter. This year we have nine candidates for full communion with the Catholic Church (baptized persons who are preparing to make a profession of Faith, and receive the Sacrament of Confirmation and Holy Communion). There are also several adults who are baptized Catholics that are receiving their first Holy Communion and/or Confirmation.

Below are brief introductions of two of our candidates. You are encouraged to visit our website (www.isthmuscatholic.org) to read their full bios and be introduced to all of our candidates for the Sacraments of Initiation. Please remember them in your prayers this Lent as they prepare to receive Christ in His fullness at Easter!

Michele Barker: Full Communion, Confirmation, Eucharist

I am from Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, and I've lived in Madison for 15 years now. I am currently a graduate student at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in the Library and Information Studies program. I also have several part-time jobs in supplement of my classes. I began thinking about Christianity, once again, with the stresses of graduate school. I realized that every time I read a Bible verse I felt a sense of peace. I was baptized and confirmed Lutheran growing up. I was drawn to Catholicism, recently, with many facets that where missing growing up Lutheran. The Cathedral Parish is also aligned more towards my schedule. I like that I can go to Mass on Saturdays or the several times on Sunday. It is also nice that there are weekday Masses at lunchtime and in the evening. This parish provides many opportunities for my busy lifestyle to build my relationship with God. I am looking forward to the Easter vigil in becoming Catholic!

Kurt Bullis: Full Communion, Confirmation, Eucharist

I welcomed my fourth daughter to the air-breathing world on March 5th. I graduated from Wheaton College in the Chicago suburbs and stayed in that area until 6 years ago when I took a position with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship in Madison. I grew up in various Protestant denominations and was baptized by an Air Force chaplain in the South China Sea when I was 10. I became Anglican in college and incrementally grew less anti-Catholic until I decided I needed to investigate for myself whether the Catholic Church's claims about herself were true. My journey over the past two and a half years has been one into ever-increasing wonder at the ridiculously beautiful love of God.

Easter Flowers

For the decoration of our churches at Easter, we invite the donation of Easter lilies and flowering plants for our altars in memory of loved ones. The cost of donating a plant is $10; checks should be made payable to the Cathedral Parish. Contributions may be put into the collection basket. Be sure to include the name of the donor and of the person(s) in whose memory the gift is made. Donations received in the office by Sunday, April 2nd, will be included in the Easter bulletin.

Stations of the Cross

At St. Patrick, the Stations of the Cross will be prayed following the 12:10 pm Mass each Wednesday during Lent. At Holy Redeemer, Stations will be prayed following the 8:00 am Mass on Saturdays. The Via Crucis will be prayed in Spanish each Friday during Lent after the 7:00 pm Mass in Spanish at Holy Redeemer.

Save the Date

Holy Week and Easter will be here soon, and immediately thereafter, new transitional deacons will be ordained for the Diocese of Madison. One of them will be Grant Thies, of our parish! Plan to attend the diaconate ordination on Easter Tuesday, April 18th, at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Monona —7:30 pm.

Theology on Tap—This Thursday

Plan to join us this Thursday, March 23rd, 7:00 pm for TOT at the Brink Lounge when Geoffrey Ludvik will speak on Jesus of Nazareth: Is there historical evidence of His life, death and resurrection? What evidence, if any, do we have that such a man existed? This presentation focuses on archaeological evidence from Roman Palestine and historical documents suggesting that yes, in fact, Jesus of Nazareth, as portrayed in the Gospels was a real historical figure.

Geoffrey is currently a PhD Candidate in Anthropology at UW-Madison studying Biblical Archaeology. He is currently a supervisor for the excavations of Khirbet Summelly, a 10th century BC Israelite outpost in the Negev Desert of Israel.

Theology on Tap is a monthly speaker series where 20s & 30s are invited to join us for engaging talks on various contemporary issues facing young adults today. Whether you are a Catholic or non-Catholic, a beer enthusiast or a fan of the Shirley Temple, we hope to see you there.

Young Adult Brunch

We have a brunch for young adults (in their 20s and 30s) after the 11:00 am Mass at St. Patrick on the first Sunday of each month. Join us for our next brunch on Sunday, April 2nd.

To receive email updates about Young Adult activities in our parish, please contact Marc Laudonio at 257-5000 or marc@isthmuscatholic.org.

••• Religious Education •••

Substitute catechists needed for religious education. Classes take place 9:00 am to 10:30 am at the Religious Education Center on Sunday mornings. Please contact Amber Cerrato if you are interested. Thank you! 608-257-5000 x 12 or amber@isthmuscatholic.org

••• Faith Formation •••

The Main Event Continues This Tuesday!

March 21: Revelation of Prayer: God Teaches Us How to Pray

The Main Event is a weekly gathering of prayer, teaching, and discussion that seeks to explain the 'WHY?' behind many aspects of the Catholic faith and invite each of us to deeper discipleship of Jesus Christ. All adults are invited to join us Tuesday, March 21st, from 6:30-8:30 pm at St. Patrick Church, as Marc Laudonio, Director of Evangelization, shares how God has taught us to hear His voice and respond to Him in love throughout Salvation History! Check the website for more details, including the full schedule with topics.

Catholicism 101

We offer a monthly 3-session overview of the Catholic Faith for adults at St. Patrick Church that occurs every other month. The series is intended especially for (1) those seeking a basic introduction to Christianity and/or the Catholic Church, (2) parents with a child to be baptized, and (3) couples preparing to be married in the Church. Session I will next be offered Tuesday, May 2nd, with sessions II and III on the following two Tuesday evenings. Sessions begin at 6:30 pm.

For further information on any of these programs, visit our website at www.isthmuscatholic.org, or contact Marc Laudonio at 257-5000 or marc@isthmuscatholic.org.

◆◆◆ Para Reflexionar ◆◆◆

Cristo te llama a la conversión

La experiencia de buscar convertir nuestro corazón a Dios, que es a lo que nos invita constantemente la Cuaresma, nace necesariamente de la experiencia que nosotros tengamos de Dios nuestro Señor. La experiencia del retorno a Dios, la experiencia de un corazón que se vuelve otra vez a nuestro Señor nace de un corazón que experimenta auténticamente a Dios. No puede nacer de un corazón que simplemente contempla sus pecados, ni del que simplemente ve el mal que ha hecho; tiene que nacer de un corazón que descubre la presencia misteriosa de Dios en la propia vida.

Durante la Cuaresma muchas veces escuchamos: "Tienes que hacer sacrificios". Pero la pregunta fundamental seria si estas experimentando mas a Dios Nuestro Señor, si te estas acercando mas a Él. Tenemos que ir al fondo de nuestra alma para ahí ver la profundidad que tiene Dios en nosotros, para ver si ya ha conseguido enlazarse con nosotros, porque solamente así llegamos a la autentica conversión del corazón. Al ver lo que Cristo paso por mi, en su camino a la cruz, tengo que preguntarme: ¿Qué he hecho yo para convertir mi corazón a Cristo? ¿Qué esfuerzo he hecho para que mi corazón lo ponga a Él como centro de mi vida?

Frecuentemente oímos: "Es que la vida espiritual es muy costoso"; "Es que seguir a Cristo es muy costoso"; es que ser un autentico cristiano es muy costoso". Yo me pregunto, ¿Qué vale mas, lo que a mi me cuesta o lo que yo gano convirtiéndome a Cristo? Merece la pena todo el esfuerzo interior por reordenar mi espíritu, por poner mis valores en su lugar, por ser capaz de cambiar algunos de mis comportamientos, incluso el uso de mi tiempo, la eficacia de mi testimonio cristiano, convirtiéndome a Cristo, porque con eso gano.

A la persona humana le bastan pequeños detalles para entrar en penitencia, para entrar en conversión, para entrar dentro de si misma, pero podría ser que ante la dificultad, ante los problemas, ante las luchas interiores o exteriores nosotros no logramos encontrarnos con Cristo. Nosotros, que tenemos a Jesucristo todos los días si queremos en la Eucaristía; nosotros, que tenemos a Jesucristo si queremos en su Palabra en el Evangelio; nosotros, que tenemos a Jesucristo todos los días en la oración, podemos dejarlo pasar y poner otros valores por encima de Cristo. ¡Que serio es esto, y como tiene que hacer que nuestro corazón descubra al autentico Jesucristo! Dirá Jesucristo: ¿De que te sirve ganar todo el mundo, si pierdes tu alma? ¿Qué podrás dar tu a cambio de tu alma? Es cuestión de ver hacia donde estamos orientando nuestra alma; es cuestión de ver hacia donde estamos poniendo nuestra intención y nuestra vida para luego aplicarlo a nuestras realidades cotidianas: aplicarlo a nuestra vida conyugal, a nuestra vida familiar, a nuestra vida social; aplicarlo a mi esfuerzo por el crecimiento interior en la oración, aplicarlo a mi esfuerzo por enraizar en mi vida las virtudes.

Cuando en esta Cuaresma escuchemos en nuestros oídos la Voz de Cristo que nos llama a la conversión del espíritu, pídele que sea Él quien nos ayude a convertir el corazón, a transformar nuestra vida, a reordenar nuestra persona a una autentica conversión del corazón, a una autentica vuelta a Dios, a una autentica experiencia de Nuestro Señor.

Vía Crucis

Les esperamos este vienes 24, y todos los viernes hasta el viernes 7 de abril a la Misa de Cuaresma a las 7:00 pm. Inmediatamente después de la Misa, quédese para conmemorar el Camino al Calvario, haciéndole compañía a nuestro buen Jesús en el Vía Crucis.

Jesús le dijo a Sta. Faustina: "Una hora de meditación de Mi dolorosa Pasión tiene mayor mérito que un año entero de flagelaciones a sangre; la meditación de Mis dolorosas llagas es de gran provecho para ti y a Mí Me da una gran alegría. Me extraña que no hayas renunciado todavía completamente a tu propia voluntad, pero Me alegro enormemente de que este cambio se produzca durante los ejercicios espirituales." (Diario 369)
