The Church invites us to make our families a priority, because our children are the only possessions we will take with us into eternity. The family unit faces unprecedented challenges and threats today. On this retreat Sharon offers help and healing for families through her teachings on family systems theory backed with the use of Scripture and teachings of our Catholic faith.

Sharon has done graduate studies in Family Life Ministry and has a master's degree in Education from the University of Kansas. She has been ministering to Catholic families for over 30 years instructing engaged couples and presenting marriage enrichment and marriage healing retreats and classes. She has taught numerous parenting classes and lead both grief and divorce support groups and women's Bible studies. She is currently the program coordinator for Senior Adult Ministry in the Office of Marriage and Family Life for the diocese of Wichita. She is married to her husband ken and is the mother of six children and has 13 grandchildren. In her spare time, she enjoys playing with her grandkids, quilting, reading, cooking and traveling.

To register, please complete and mail the registration form below along with your $40 payment by Jan 14 to Lee Lamas at 908 Westridge Dr., Newton, KS 67114. Add $5 for late registration.
