St. Louis IX, the King of France...and the Crusades

Undoubtedly you saw in the news over the past weekend an effort to tear down the iconic statue of St. Louis, the King, presiding over Art Hill in Forest Park. Along with this effort to remove the statue, there is also a move to change the very name of our City and County named in honor of St. Louis IX, the King. The organizers of this movement claim that St. Louis, the King, is guilty of genocide against Jews and Muslims during the Crusades in the Middle Age, an accusation not historically accurate.

The real history of the Crusades is a bit more complex as is most medieval history according to Professor Thomas F. Madden, a teacher at St. Louis University and author of the book, "The Concise History of the Crusades." In an article in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch this past Sunday, Professor Madden claims that during the seventh century and onward the Islamic Kingdoms were the superpowers in the Mediterranean world and a force with which to be reckoned.

In 1244, Egyptian and Turkish forces conquered Jerusalem, massacred thousands of Christians, and desecrated shrines and churches sacred to Catholic Christians. St. Louis led several crusades to reclaim the holy sites and aimed at recovering Jerusalem for the Christian kingdom there.

In 1248 King Louis IX set out and led the Seventh Crusade. He landed in Egypt where the residents fled, but only a few months later the king and thousands of Franks were captured by the Muslims. Eventually, the King was ransomed and returned to France. The Crusade was a failure.

King Louis IX returned in the Eighth Crusade in 1270 and landed in Tunisia and died of typhus there. Another failed attempt to reclaim the Catholic Christian holy sites. It doesn't appear likely that King Louis IX is guilty of genocide at all.

In fact, St. Louis is the patron saint of France, a holy man, and a just ruler and was considered a model French monarch. He gave aid to the poor and founded hospitals. He invited the poor to dine with him and even washed their feet when they left. He is known to bath the lepers and was sympathetic to the Jews in Paris. He never rounded them up or forced them to leave. Many monarchs at that time in Europe slaughtered Jews and were very anti-Semitic. Not so for St. Louis IX.

The organizers, bent on toppling this icon of our City, need to know the history of this sainted man and also the complex history of the Crusades as well as Medieval history where believers saw little difference between the temporal and spiritual worlds.

In addition, while on the subject of removing statues, let me comment on the removal of Confederate statues, images and flags. According to Ken Burns, the great and respected American historian, every statue and icon of the Confederacy should be removed. They represent White Supremacy and are racist. Even after the Civil War General Robert E. Lee told his generals and the people of the South that they should not erect any memorials of that war. To create such monuments of the Civil War and the Confederacy will only create division and pain. We are one nation and are no longer divided. At the time most honored General Lee's request and plea.

Most of the statues of Confederate generals or leaders were constructed much later during the late 19th Century and early part of the 20th Century with the rise of white supremacy in the South and the so called "Jim Crow" laws. These statues are and were meant to be racist images. Ken Burns says these images must go. They are divisive and wrong and are offensive to all of us. They devalue the lives of Black Americans.

Hey folks, we need more people for our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults journey of faith sessions!! Since we are called to evangelize and grow the Church we are called to invite folks to our Catholic Faith. If you know of a friend, a neighbor, a relative even who has shown some interest in learning about Catholicism or joining the Church send them our way. Have them contact Linda Doyle at 966-8600 and we can give them all the information about joining our RCIA class for this next year.

We usually average about 10 new folks each year. However, last year we only had five candidates and NO catechumens (folks unbaptized)!! I would just love a class of 20 or so!!!! Wow, that would be terrific!

Hope all are well as we move into July and mid-summer. Enjoy and be safe for the Fourth of July and Happy Independence Day!

Peace and all good,

Monsignor Jack

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS
Office of Child and Youth Protection

The Archdiocese of St. Louis has developed a new system for safe environment compliance called Prevent and Protect STL. Everyone (clergy, employees and volunteers) ministering to minors and vulnerable adults in the Archdiocese are required to register in the new system before December 31, 2020. This includes those new to service as well as those who are currently compliant and in service. For those who have already attended a Protecting God's Children workshop, your previous training date will transfer to this new system. In addition to attending a live Protecting God's Children workshop, all clergy, volunteers and employees will register for an updated background screening, view two new on-line training modules on abuse reporting and the Code of Ethical Conduct, and agree to the updated Code of Ethical Conduct.

Please go to www.preventandprotectstl.org: select the 'register' link and enter 'stlprotect' for the passcode. Then create your username and password for this new system. Contact Mary Doyle, the parish Child Safety Coordinator, at (314)966-8600 or mdoyle@stpeterkirkwood.org with any questions or for assistance.

Thank you for your continued support.

PLEASE NOTE -

Our St. Angela Merici Chapel, located in Ursuline Hall is open for personal prayer. You are welcome to visit Monday - Friday, 6:00AM to 10:00PM. Enter through the Genneseret Garden Courtyard which is adjacent to the east side of the church building. The code to enter is 0822.

GENNESERET MEDITATION GARDEN

Our meditation garden, adjacent to the east side of the church building, is the perfect place to pray and begin or end your day. It is fully lit at night and is a great spot to enter into a quiet place "beyond the walls" where God dwells.

KIRK CARE

The Kirkwood Community Food and Financial Assistance Organization has been lending a helping hand since 1982.

Kirk Care serves families in the R-VII school district boundaries with food and utility bill assistance.

A basket has been placed in the entrance of the rectory for non-perishable food donations. Thank you for helping the families of Kirkwood. For more information contact Jennifer McCoy, 314-960-9873.

Dear Parishioners,

My name is Linda Doyle and I am the Director of the R.C.I.A. process at St. Peter. R.C.I.A. stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. It is a process by which the Catholic Church educates those wanting to explore the Catholic faith and, ultimately, brings those who desire to be Catholic into the Church. RCIA is specifically for:

Adults who are unbaptized and want to explore the Catholic faith;

Adults who have been baptized in another Christian faith tradition and want to learn more about the Catholic faith; or Baptized Catholics who have not yet received the sacraments of First Eucharist or Confirmation, and desire to be in full communion with the Catholic Church.

We will begin instructing our next RCIA group in September. As I look toward that, I have two favors to ask of all our parishioners this summer. First, I ask that you to please pray for our RCIA process, and specifically, to ask the Holy Spirit to bless our parish with new catechumens (those not yet baptized) and candidates (those who are baptized in another faith tradition, but desire to be in full communion with the Catholic Church) this fall. Second, I encourage you to exercise your role as a baptized Catholic and extend an invitation to a friend, co-worker, neighbor, PSR or school parent who is not Catholic, to join the R.C.I. A. process this year, especially, if he or she has asked you a few questions about our faith. You may also want to extend an invitation to a family member who was baptized Catholic, but was unable to complete his or her Sacraments, such as Eucharist and Confirmation.

The people of God, as represented by the local Church, should understand and show by their concern that the initiation of adults is a responsibility of all the baptized. Therefore the community must always be fully prepared in the pursuit of its apostolic vocation to give help to those searching for Christ. (RCIA 9)

As the people of God, we are called to pursue those who are searching for Jesus and lead them to the R.C.I.A. process where they will learn the essential truths of our faith, and also, through the grace of God, will fall in love with the Eternal Lover, the Person of Jesus Christ.

If you encounter a seeker who is interested in learning more about our faith or wants to become Catholic, please have them contact me at ldoyle@stpeterkirkwood.org or at 314-966-8600.

Thank you very much for your prayers. Let's all go out and invite someone who is searching for Jesus to join our R.C.I.A. process this fall!

Peace be with you,

Linda Doyle

See, your king shall come to you;
a just savior is he,
meek, and riding on an ass,
on a colt, the foal of an ass. (Zec 9:9b)

PSALM:

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.
(Ps 145) or Alleluia

SECOND READING:

For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body,
you will live. (Rom 8:13)

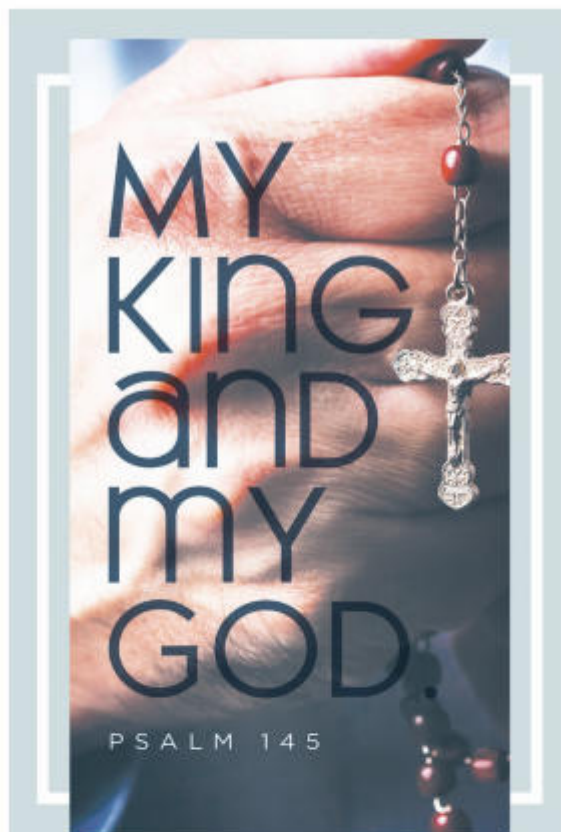

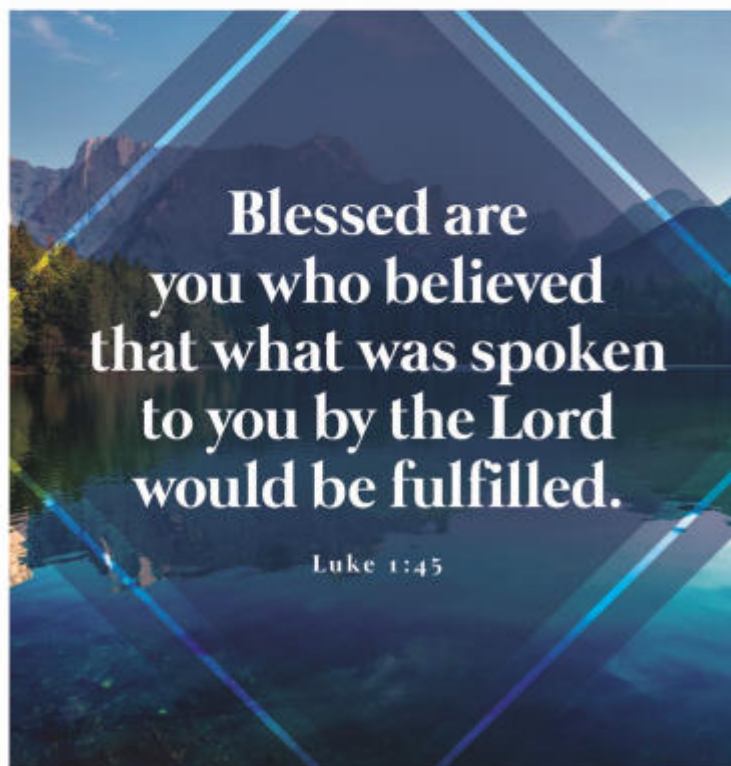

GOSPEL:

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest." (Mt 11:28)

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF JULY 5, 2020

Sunday: 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: St. Maria Goretti, Virgin and Martyr
Thursday: St. Augustine Zhao Rong, Priest, and Companions, Martyrs
Saturday: St. Benedict, Abbot
Next Sunday: 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

REFLECT

FIRST READING

The prophet Zechariah envisioned a future king for the people of Israel who would rule the nations with justice and humility. How do you see these virtues as a strength in leadership?

SECOND READING

Paul speaks of the promise of the resurrection from the dead for believers who reject the flesh and live according to the Spirit. What spiritual exercises do you practice that help reject the flesh?

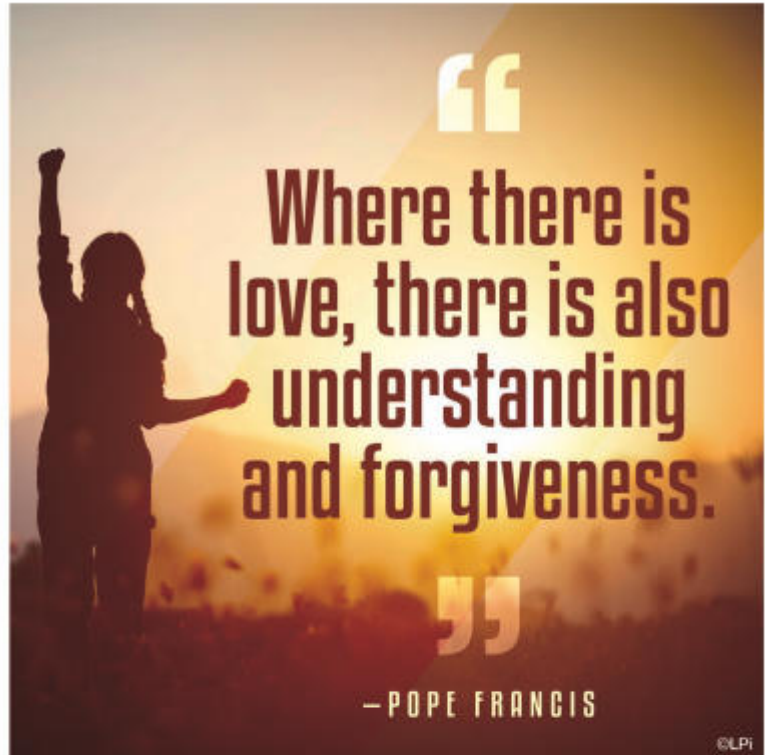

GOSPEL READING

Jesus praises his Father for the irony of the wise and learned who are unable to see what is revealed to the childlike. What does this tell us about the kingdom of heaven?

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The flesh is our old self of yesterday and the one we left behind in baptism. It is the self of doubts and fears, sin and error, reluctance, untamed passion, and errors in judgment. It is also the self of missed opportunities and roads untraveled. Although we were baptized many years ago, every day is another day to live, not according to the flesh of yesterday with its regrets and misgivings, but rather to live the life of the spirit of today and tomorrow. The burdens of our personal baggage and of life itself can weigh us down. The love of Jesus Christ and the life of the spirit can pick us up, refresh us, and provide us with the hope for new opportunities and discoveries. Because we have been baptized in Christ, we need not be anxious about what we did or did not do yesterday or anxious about what will come tomorrow. We need only to seek out the love that is before us, around us, and in us and learn.

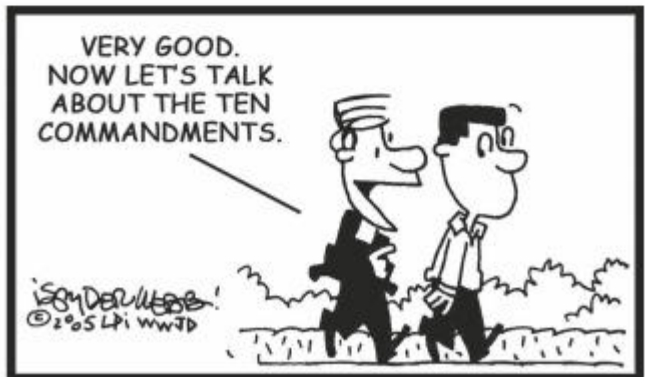

PLEASE CONSIDER ONLINE GIVING

Our parish is grateful for your continued support at this time. Thank you!

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE FOCUS OF OUR RESPECT LIFE COMMITTEE FOR THE MONTH OF JULY WILL BE ON IMMIGRATION

THREE BASIC PRINCIPLES OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING ON IMMIGRATION

An excerpt from the U.S. Bishops' pastoral statement "Welcoming the Stranger Among Us: Unity in Diversity"

Both the Old and New Testaments tell compelling stories of refugees forced to flee because of oppression. Exodus tells the story of the Chosen People, Israel, who were victims of bitter slavery in Egypt.

They were utterly helpless by themselves, but with God's powerful intervention they were able to escape and take refuge in the desert. For forty years they lived as wanderers with no homeland of their own. Finally, God fulfilled his ancient promise and settled them on the land that they could finally call home.

The New Testament begins with Matthew's story of Joseph and Mary's escape to Egypt with their newborn son, Jesus, because the paranoid and jealous King Herod wanted to kill the infant. Our Savior himself lived as a refugee because his own land was not safe.

Jesus reiterates the Old Testament command to love and care for the stranger, a criterion by which we shall be judged: "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me" (Mt 25:35).

Three Basic Principles of Catholic Social Teaching on Immigration

First Principle: People have the right to migrate to sustain their lives and the lives of their families.

Because of the belief that newcomers compete for scarce resources, immigrants and refugees are at times driven away, resented, or despised. Yet every person has an equal right to receive from the earth what is necessary for life - food, clothing, shelter. Moreover, every person has the right to education, medical care, religion, and the expression of one's culture.

In many places people live in fear, danger, or dehumanizing poverty. Clearly, it is not God's will that some of his children live in luxury while others have nothing.

Second Principle: A country has the right to regulate its borders and to control immigration.

The overriding principle of all Catholic social teaching is that individuals must make economic, political, and social decisions not out of shortsighted self-interest, but with regard for the common good.

That means that a moral person cannot consider only what is good for his or her own self and family, but must act with the good of all people as his or her guiding principle.

Because there seems to be no end to poverty, war, and misery in the world, developed nations will continue to experience pressure from many people who desire to resettle in their lands.

Third Principle: A country must regulate its borders with justice and mercy.

A country's regulation of borders and control of immigration must be governed by concern for all people and by mercy and justice. A nation may not simply decide that it wants to provide for its own people and not others. A sincere commitment to the needs of all must prevail.

In our modern world where communication and travel are much easier, the burden of emergencies cannot be placed solely on nations immediately adjacent to the crises. Justice dictates that the world community contributes resources toward shelter, food, medical services, and basic welfare.

The Catholic Church teaches that every person has basic human rights and is entitled to have basic human needs met - food, shelter, clothing, education, and health care.

In the Bible, God promises that our judgment will be based on our treatment of the most vulnerable. Before God we cannot excuse inhumane treatment of certain persons by claiming that their lack of legal status deprives them of rights given by the Creator.

It is the position of the Catholic Church that pastoral, educational, medical, and social services provided by the Church are never conditioned on legal status. All persons are invited to participate in our parishes, attend our schools, and receive other services offered by our institutions and programs.

We continue to live-stream our Masses on weekdays at 8:15 am. On Sunday, our live-streamed Mass will take place at 10:00 am. The easiest way to watch our Livestream Masses is on our new St. Peter Live website:
