Fasting for the Sanctification of the Church....

With the latest directives from County Supervisor Dr. Sam Page and with all the discussion in the news about wearing masks or not wearing masks, it seems like there is a need to speak of the common good and what is best for all to get a grip on this Covid- 19 virus.

The way our country does democracy is so often based on individual rights and a suspicion of big government involvement in our daily lives. Normally that works for us. However during certain times in our history, the need to consider the common good and a more unified approach to deal with the crisis is the only way to go. Such was the case during World War I and World War II. Individual states or counties or cities could not fight a war independently. We needed a unified effort to combat the enemy. Such is the case with this invisible, yet very real, enemy - the enemy that respects no man-made boundaries or ordinances or laws. We need to combat this enemy with a common good approach and a unified effort. I pray that most of our common-sense citizens will see it that way as it is the only way to defeat this enemy...wear a mask, social distancing, and hand sanitizing often.

May I also propose another effort...fasting and prayer for the sake of ending Covid-19 in our midst. I propose a rosary a day in honor of Our Lady of Undoer of Knots. In addition, listed below are fasting possibilities that could be done every day to end this crisis in our world and in our beloved land.

Simple Fare...

I ask you to examine your diet and resolve to make the necessary changes if it is not healthy. Try vegetarian meals. Learn to cook and serve the foods that the poor eat. Tasty and healthful meals can be made from lentils, rice, grains and legumes, which when eaten together offer the protein that we need. You may want to invest in a simple Indian or Mexican cookbook.

Make a collection box to set on the family table. Label it: The fasts of the Rich are the Feasts for the poor. The money you save by eating sparingly, not dining out and forgoing meat, can be graphically transferred into alms for the poor for the sanctification of the Church and its renewal.

Not Only Food...

Besides forgoing food and otherwise eating more simply and more consciously, consider other ways of fasting. We ask ourselves: What does my baptism in this Church cost me? Surely it requires that we fast from wasteful behaviors. Here are few suggestions: Fast from guzzling gas. Drive the speed limit without air conditioning. Take public transportation. Ride a bicycle or walk when you can.

Fast from compulsive consumerism. Check your closets, cupboards, storage rooms and garage. How many items have you collected that you thought you needed – until you brought them home and had “buyer’s remorse”? So choose some of those areas in your house to clean out. Fix, clean, and deliver these items to those who need them more than you do...and fast from holding on to them.

Examine the ways in which you consume – and perhaps waste – nature’s resources. So...shorten your showers; save the warm-up water for your garden or houseplants. Recycle religiously. Refuse to use plastic and fast from using it. Use instead your own fabric shopping sack. Write on both sides of a piece of paper; recycle paper used on one side of a scratch pad. Fast from really comfortable temperatures in your home...lower your thermostat in winter and raise the thermostat in summer and add or subtract clothing in layers to keep comfortable.

Fast from Wickedness...

Leo, bishop of Rome from 440 to 461, wrote:

“The sum total of our fasting does not consist in merely abstaining from food if we do not withhold our heart from wickedness and restrain our lips so that they speak no evil. We must so moderate our rightful use of food that our other desires may be subject to the same rule. They therefore who desire to do good works, let them not fear that they shall be without the means; since even for giving two pennies, the generosity of the poor widow of the gospel was glorified!”

Fasting is a means by which we find the energy to “withhold our hearts from wickedness and restrain our lips so that they speak no evil.” Whether you refrain from eating altogether or you simplify your meals, use some time at the table to write letters to our political senators and representatives about issues of justice and peace; health care for the poor; immigration reform; responsible gun legislation to help end the violence on our streets; the conservation of the earth’s resources. Send copies of your letters to the local newspapers. Let your letters be the two pennies of the widow in the gospel. And let them be for the sanctification of the Church.

Let us continue to pray for each other during these challenging times, for health care workers, first responders, teachers, grocery store workers, and over-the-road truck drivers bringing goods to market for us and all those on the front lines of fighting this enemy.

Take care, folks, and be safe and stay healthy. I’ll see you in church...in person or on livestream.

Hard copies of this weekend's bulletin are available on the shelf in the vestibule of the rectory office.

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS
Office of Child and Youth Protection

The Archdiocese of St. Louis has developed a new system for safe environment compliance called Prevent and Protect STL. Everyone (clergy, employees and volunteers) ministering to minors and vulnerable adults in the Archdiocese are required to register in the new system before December 31, 2020. This includes those new to service as well as those who are currently compliant and in service. For those who have already attended a Protecting God's Children workshop, your previous training date will transfer to this new system. In addition to attending a live Protecting God's Children workshop, all clergy, volunteers and employees will register for an updated background screening, view two new on-line training modules on abuse reporting and the Code of Ethical Conduct, and agree to the updated Code of Ethical Conduct.

Please go to www.preventandprotectstl.org: select the 'register' link and enter 'stlprotect' for the passcode. Then create your username and password for this new system. Contact Mary Doyle, the parish Child Safety Coordinator, at (314)966-8600 or mdoyle@stpeterkirkwood.org with any questions or for assistance.

Thank you for your continued support.

THE FOCUS OF OUR RESPECT LIFE COMMITTEE
FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST WILL BE ON RACISM

WHAT IS THE RACIAL WEALTH GAP, AND WHY DOES IT EXIST?

- The typical black family has about one-tenth as much wealth as the typical white family. Blacks have $16,000 in net worth (all of their savings and assets less all of their debts), compared to about $163,000 for whites. Overall, whites own 90 percent of the nation’s wealth, and blacks about 10 percent.
- That 10-1 gap shrinks to roughly 8-1 if you compare blacks and whites who have the same incomes, education and family background. In other words, even blacks who are making the same financial and educational choices as whites still only own about 20 percent of what whites do.
- That remaining 80 percent is, academics agree, the enduring effect of historic discrimination that prevented blacks from owning property—such as the Homestead Act and GI Bill excluding blacks, as well as “red-lining” of certain neighborhoods in St. Louis and nationwide that prevented blacks from buying homes in white neighborhoods.

REFLECT

FIRST READING

Near the end of Israel's captivity in Babylon (597-538 BC), the prophet Isaiah spoke of the Lord's desire to be unimaginably generous and life-giving to his people. How has the Lord been generous in gifts to you and your family?

SECOND READING

In his letter to the Christians in Rome, Paul speaks of God's inseparable bond of love for us through Jesus Christ. In what ways does this sense of God's love for us help you in times of stress and anxiety?

GOSPEL READING

In the immediate aftermath of the news of the death of John the Baptist, Matthew reports that Jesus, "moved with pity," cured those who were sick in the crowds and fed the entire crowd of 5,000. How do you react toward others for whom you feel "pity"?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Many people in our world are hungry and thirsty. This hunger and thirst go well beyond physical needs for food, security, and shelter. Many are emotionally and spiritually parched, too. Behind every act of violence is a soul who hungers. People live with relationships that actually starve them. They are abused, exploited, disrespected, laughed at, and marginalized. There is a lot of confusion and inner pain that needs to be acknowledged and expressed. We all long to be understood and loved, even when our inner demons or who I am make it difficult to be. Do you live with inner confusion and pain? Folks often wander through life without any real direction or purpose and take their cues from what seems satisfying or popular at the moment. The deeper dots of our lives can easily remain unconnected, and we can find ourselves without grounding, purpose, or real happiness. Life becomes shallow and without real purpose as we hunger and thirst for an ultimate love.

It's easier to see the physical hungers and thirsts. We try to respond to these as best we can. Much more needs to be done. With all that God's earth can provide, nobody ought to face sleep at night with a belly that's empty. It's sinful. It's unjust. But isn't all hunger unjust? It doesn't need to be, and it should not be. Just as no one ought to be physically hungry and thirsty, there is really no need to be emotionally or spiritually deficient either. If we have more privileges at our fingertips, it is easier to try to satisfy our emotional and spiritual hungers and thirst by acting on impulse or self-indulgence, carelessly following passions, or by seeking self-destructive ways to dull the ache of emptiness.

Folks need to know where to look for nourishment and need the right friends to help them find it. We may not think that we have enough to respond to and to satisfy all of the needs, but we do. It doesn't take much. Five loaves and two fish provided for a huge crowd. With God, all things are possible. Our faith provides the direction for where God's children must go to find the nourishment they seek. It also tells us how to structure life so that justice and equity can be a reality for all. It also tells us how to respond to pain, sinfulness, and confusion. Come to the water and then help another get there.

He said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over— twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children. - Mt 14:19c-21

Umbert the Unborn

by Gary Cangemi

Gospel

Imagine being one of Jesus' disciples. One moment you see more than 5,000 hungry people. You don't know what to do. The next moment you see Jesus turn a small lunch into a huge feast. Jesus gives you the food, and he asks you to share it with the hungry people. Jesus asks the same thing today. Share what he gives you with others, too.

Prayer

Jesus, help me to share what you have given to me.

We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions are opportunities for you to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church.

Sessions are always held on Sunday's at around 10 AM. The first session is September 13 in Ursuline Hall. Please give Linda Doyle a call if you have any questions or would like further information at 314-966-8600, or email her at ldoyle@stpeterkirkwood.org.
