Exult...

At the Easter Vigil several weeks ago Deacon John Komotos sang the Exsultet also known as the Easter Proclamation. It is one of the most ancient chant pieces in our Catholic liturgy and one of the most beautiful, too. During the singing of the Exsultet the church remains in darkness and only the Paschal Candle and the congregation's small tapers light the night. It is so named Exsultet because the first word in the Latin version is "exsultet" meaning "rejoice." The prayer dates back to the seventh century. Before that, the deacon was expected to make one up and chant it! The Exsultet's music is pure Gregorian Chant.

As a prayer of thanks and praise, the Exsultet shows us that these are days to truly rejoice in all that God has done, in all that God is doing now. And not only us: The Exsultet calls upon all creation to join us in rejoicing: "Rejoice, heavenly powers! Sing, choirs of angels! Exult, all creation around God's throne!" Why? "Jesus Christ our King is risen!"

Make your plans now to plant your garden – even if it's a small flower bed or window box! Pick up litter as you come and go this week. Recycle as much of your garbage as possible. Do what you can to encourage the earth into exultation.

Light of Christ! Thanks be to God

This is the Night...

The Exsultet sings repeatedly of Easter Eve: "This is the night when first you saved our ancestors...this is the night when the pillar of fire destroyed the darkness...This is the night when Christians everywhere ...are restored to grace and grow together...This is the night when Jesus Christ broke the chains of death..."

But didn't these things happen long ago and far away? In one sense, yes. These were historical events that took place in specific places at certain times, once for always. But when we enter into the liturgy, we enter into God's time (Kairos Time). The saving events of the past are made present to us, and we participate in them.

It's the same at Christmas when we sing "Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord." It's not that we pretend that these things did not happen in history, once and for always. Instead, it's this: With God, goodness is forever and salvation is now.

Light of Christ! Thanks be to God!

Divided but Undimmed...

At the Easter Vigil, when we give thanks and praise to God for the large Easter Candle that will continue to burn through the entire Easter Season of 50 days, we heard Deacon John Komotos sing that long prayer...The Exsultet:

Accept this Easter Candle, a flame divided but undimmed, a pillar of fire that glows to the honor of God.

Just before the prayer began, the Assembly that night in our church shared the light of the candle, each to each, among all who are baptized. Whenever we share the flame of a candle, one to another, the flame is divided among us. Now usually when we divide something up, it means that what was once a large portion is now several smaller individual portions. But notice what happens with the flame. It does get divided into many individual flames, but the overall effect, the light, actually grows and is brighter. The whole church was lit up on Easter Eve just by the light of candles! (And so was the room!)

This is how it is with Christ. This is how it is with the Eucharist. We break the bread that is Christ's body. We pour out into the cups the wine that is Christ's blood. What was one loaf become many pieces. What was one cup becomes many sips. But the overall effect, the mystical body of Christ, this assembly, this church, actually grows stronger, bigger, more loving.

Light of Christ! Thanks be to God!

Put your hands together, folks, for our Second Graders who received their First Holy Communion Saturday! Watch them, folks, as they receive the gift of the Eucharist! Notice the attentiveness and the reverence when they receive Jesus? Let them be a reminder of how we ought to receive the Eucharist. The greatest gift in the world can also become routine and "matter-of-fact." Take care that it does not.

Enough of the snow, Lord! April snow showers ought to be over so bring on those May flowers and the Sun! See you in church or livestream!

cornerstone. (Ps 118) Or Alleluia.

REFLECT

FIRST READING

We hear how Peter courageously testified before the Sanhedrin that in Jesus' name the crippled man was healed and in Jesus' name all believers are saved. How strong is the conviction of your faith when someone challenges you?

SECOND READING

John speaks to his community of believers as "children of God." What do you see as some of the implications of such a designation?

GOSPEL READING

In speaking of himself as "the good shepherd" who cares deeply for his sheep, Jesus contrasts himself to "a hired man" (the Pharisees) who has no concern for his sheep. How should have the Pharisees reacted to this criticism?

Real Presence? How can we be sure? Presented by Dr. Lawrence Feinberg

Please join us on May 25, at 7:00PM in Church. Dr. Feingold's will speak on: The Eucharist: Mystery of Presence, Sacrifice, and Communion; and Its Jewish Roots."

Dr. Feingold's talk will answer the following question:

Why did Jesus institute the Eucharist?

- The Eucharist is the sacrament of Christ's love for His Bride, the Church.
- Jesus instituted the Eucharist to continue His presence among us; to give us His sacrifice; and to give Himself to us in Communion.
- And finally, how each of these aspects was prepared for in the life of the Chosen People.

Dr. Lawrence Feingold is Associate Professor of Theology and Philosophy at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary in St. Louis. He converted to Catholicism in 1989 together with his wife while engaged in realist marble sculpture in Pietrasanta, Italy. He is the author of The Eucharist: Mystery of Presence, Sacrifice, and Communion (2018).

MEDICAL ETHICS

Catholic health care expresses the healing ministry of Christ

A Statement of the U.S. Catholic Bishops

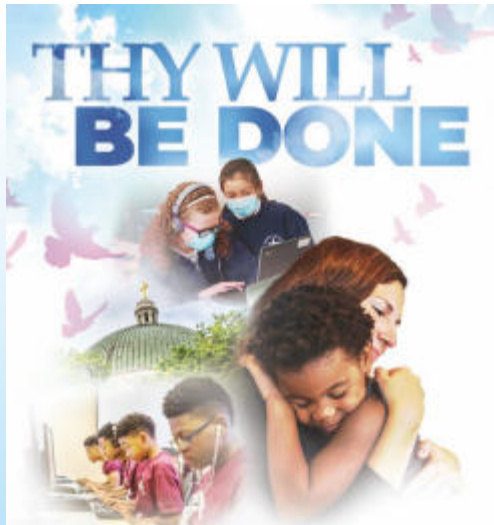

The mystery of Christ casts light on every facet of Catholic health care: to see Christian love as the animating principle of health care; to see healing and compassion as a continuation of Christ’s mission; to see suffering as a participation in the redemptive power of Christ’s passion, death, and resurrection; and to see death, transformed by the resurrection, as an opportunity for a final act of communion with Christ.

2021 Annual Catholic Appeal

THY WILL BE DONE

Parish Pledge Weekends April 24-25 and May 1-2

When those in the world see us, see the Church, what do they see? How do they define us? Through our deeds and our actions, through the impact we make on others’ lives. And so, when Jesus announces to the world that He is risen, he does not do it through pomp, through seeking attention. No, he does it through an act of charity. Through the healing of someone in need, giving of Himself and His gifts so that those who need it most may receive God’s grace and mercy.

That leads Peter to proclaim, “There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved.” (Acts 4:8 -12) When we show God’s love to others, the joy is contagious. The Good Shepherd knows to lead His flock to where they will prosper, and all He asks is that we follow His holy will. We give of ourselves because He provided the ultimate sacrifice, we love others because His boundless love fills our cups until they are overflowing.

Through our collective support of the Annual Catholic Appeal, we can proclaim with one voice, Thy Will Be Done. The past year has brought considerable challenge and hardship to so many, but your generous support of the Appeal helped provide hope and support for our parishes and our entire community. Please, help our Church continue to make a positive impact in the lives of those who need it most. You can give or visit aca.archstl.org to learn more about how the Appeal uplifts the lives of those we serve.

If you have not received information by mail about making a pledge to the ACA please know that pledge cards are available in the Rectory Office. Please prayerfully consider a gift today by picking up your pledge card, by visiting our website stpeterkirkwood.org or aca.archstl.org to make a donation.
