Mass Intentions

Deadline to publish Mass Intentions in the bulletin is two weeks before the date of the scheduled Mass Intention. We can still announce the intention in the before-Mass announcements.

Mass intentions are never sold, however, we do accept a standard offering of $5 per Mass intention. Please note that we do accept offerings for less than or more than the standard offering. Donors are encouraged to reflect on the generosity of God in determining the amount they wish to offer along with their spiritual intentions, but the standard amount of $5 is always a good guideline.

3RD SUNDAY—ORDINARY TIME

One of the favorite quotes from our Patron, St. Jerome reads, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."

As we hear the readings this week, we can stand in awe at the faith of our ancestors. In the Book of Nehemiah, it is clear that the people believe and are just overcome with reverence and strong feelings when they hear the Word of God read out to them. They truly believe that it is God speaking to them in the word that is read.

In the Gospel, we have this account of Jesus preaching in the synagogue of his home town. We are at the beginning of Luke's Gospel and the small section we read today only tells us that Jesus proclaims to his own people that the Scripture that He is reading is fulfilled right in front of them. We can only try to imagine his friends and neighbors trying to understand Him! Here is this young man, probably likable and normal for the most part—but now claiming that he is the fulfillment of the Scriptures of their religion.

Both of these passages focus on the power of the Word of God. Both of the readings show us people who are willing to give their lives for their belief that God is present in these Holy Scriptures.

We must ask ourselves today about our own beliefs. Sunday after Sunday or even day after day we hear the Sacred Scriptures or we read them on our own. Do we allow these Scriptures to have any power in our lives at all? How do we read the Scriptures? How do we listen to them?

3er DOMINGO—TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Una de las citas favoritas de nuestro Patrón, San Jerónimo, dice: “La ignorancia de las Escrituras es ignorancia de Cristo”.

Mientras escuchamos las lecturas de esta semana, podemos asombrarnos ante la fe de nuestros antepasados. En el Libro de Nehemías, está claro que la gente cree y se llena de reverencia y fuertes sentimientos cuando escuchan que se les lee la Palabra de Dios. Creen verdaderamente que es Dios quien les habla en la palabra que se lee.

En el Evangelio tenemos este relato de Jesús predicando en la sinagoga de su ciudad natal. Estamos en los principios del Evangelio de Lucas y la pequeña sección que leemos hoy solo nos dice que Jesús proclama a su propio pueblo que la Escritura que está leyendo se cumple justo en frente de ellos. ¡Solo podemos tratar de imaginar a sus amigos y vecinos tratando de entenderlo! Aquí está este joven, probablemente simpático y normal en su mayor parte, pero ahora afirmando que él es el cumplimiento de las Escrituras de su religión.

Ambos pasajes se enfocan en el poder de la Palabra de Dios. Ambas lecturas nos muestran personas que están dispuestas a dar su vida por creer que Dios está presente en estas Sagradas Escrituras.

Debemos preguntarnos hoy sobre nuestras propias creencias. Domingo tras domingo o incluso día tras día escuchamos las Sagradas Escrituras o las leemos por nuestra cuenta. ¿Permitimos que estas Escrituras tengan algún poder en nuestras vidas? ¿Cómo leemos las Escrituras? ¿Cómo los escuchamos?

CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

End of year contribution statements for 2021 for online and envelope contributors will be available after January 31st. You can request yours now. Please email your request along with your envelope number to bookkeeper@stjeromesatx.org or call the parish office at 210-648-2694.

On behalf of Archbishop Gustavo and Father Kris, we invite you and your family to participate in this year's Archbishop's Appeal for Shared Ministries by offering a sacrificial gift. Our theme for this year's Appeal is Our Journey Together. By now,

What is our Archbishop's Appeal for Shared Ministries? It is the transformative love that is so critical to the life of our local church. It is the ministry shared between St. Jerome Catholic Church and the Archdiocese of San Antonio, between Fr. Kris and Archbishop Gustavo. It is a compassionate love for those most in need.

Let us journey together to financially support the formation of priests and deacons who will serve our parish soon. Your financial support helps prepare lay leaders to serve as catechists, chaplains, and lectors. It offers a Catholic education to families in need. It broadcasts televised Masses and helps expand our reach through other digital media. Your financial support to this Appeal will share Christ's love as it feeds, clothes, shelters, and cares for the most vulnerable. All these shared ministries, our ministries support our neighbors in need and further the mission of the Catholic Church.

Our parish goal is full participation. Next weekend To accomplish this, we need your support. Every family should participate by making a gift to this appeal. Any gift, any amount will make a difference in somebody's life. I invite you to pray and find it in your heart to make a sacrificial gift to this year's Appeal. Gifts can be given:

- Text-To-Give: (210) 750-6712; keyword APPEAL
- Online at www.archsa.org/appeal
- Or if necessary, using the parish Appeal envelope

All these ways of giving to the Appeal are safe and fast. If you need help with it, please let us know, we will be happy to assist you.

May God bless you for your willingness to share your prayers and financial support to this Appeal.

Appeal Weekend

January 29th—January 30th

SEMINARIAN PROJECT

Help CCD classes send love to the gentlemen who have decide to follow God's calling and are studying for the priesthood. Each class has been praying for seminarians and we'd love to send them goodies for St. Valentine's Day!

CCD classes are writing letters and making handmade items full of love. However we are also looking for donations to include with them such as stamps, laundry supplies (i.e. tide pods, fabric softener, etc.) candy, snacks, beef jerky, trail mix, and gift cards for ($25 to HEB, Walmart, Amazon, Visa) Please note: this is the only time and place we will ask you for these cards. Please do not respond to texts or emails asking you for gift cards. We will not text or email you!

Our goal is to provide each seminarian with a goodie bag and gift card including our very own Dalton Moy. These items can be turned into the Faith Formation teacher, CCD office or the parish office no later than February 6th. Thanks!!
