SACRISTANS NEEDED

We are looking for new Sacristans. Our Catholic Faith is full of traditions. If you are interested in learning more about these traditions then becoming a Sacristan is for you. Or if you would just like to serve in a new ministry, that works too. You can serve as little or as much as you would like to. Some of the services the Sacristans are involved in are opening and setting up for weddings, funerals, quinces, baptisms, morning Masses, and weekend Masses. Reach out to Gayle Haese 210-262-1091 or catch one of the Sacristans you may see around church: Robert Neugebauer, Gary Thompson, Jennifer Davis or Millie Dupnik and ask them about it. We would love to have you join our amazing ministry.

3RD SUNDAY—ORDINARY TIME

Today we celebrate Sunday of the Word of God, recognizing the centrality of God’s word in the life of the Church. Established only four years ago, Sunday of the Word of God reminds us that scripture is central to our faith. Our patron, Saint Jerome, who translated most of the Bible into Latin in the fourth century, wrote, “Ignorance of the scriptures is ignorance of Christ.”

Every time we come to Mass we listen to the words of scripture, conscious that God’s word is a living word, speaking to us in our age as powerfully and relevantly as when it was written.

Christ is the center of the Bible, both Old and New Testaments, for, as John wrote, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God” (1:1). Through stories and myths, histories and testimonies, visions and parables, oracles and letters and songs, God is revealed to us through the Word.

This Sunday we hear a dramatic example of how words written in one era come alive centuries later in a new context. Isaiah saw that Judah’s king had turned his back on his own people, but also saw a day when God’s ultimate triumph would be realized. Eight hundred years later, Matthew noted that Jesus came from the same region Isaiah mentioned, giving new meaning to the “great light” who overcame the darkness. Listening to God’s holy word, let us reflect on how the light of Christ continues to overcome the darkness, and let us resolve to make God’s word a guiding force in our lives.

Question of the Week

Can I commit myself to studying scripture daily in 2023, making it central in my life?

3° DOMINGO—TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Hoy celebramos el Domingo de la Palabra de Dios, reconociendo la centralidad de la palabra de Dios en la vida de la Iglesia. Establecido hace solo cuatro años, el Domingo de la Palabra de Dios nos recuerda que las Escrituras son fundamentales para nuestra fe. Nuestro patrón, San Jerónimo, quien tradujo la mayor parte de la Biblia al latín en el siglo IV, escribió: “La ignorancia de las Escrituras es ignorancia de Cristo”.

Cada vez que venimos a Misa escuchamos las palabras de las Escrituras, conscientes de que la palabra de Dios es una palabra viva, que nos habla en nuestra época con tanta fuerza y relevancia como cuando fue escrita.

Cristo es el centro de la Biblia, tanto del Antiguo como del Nuevo Testamento, porque, como escribió Juan, “En el principio era el Verbo, y el Verbo era con Dios, y el Verbo era Dios” (1:1). A través de historias y mitos, historias y testimonios, visiones y parábolas, oráculos y cartas y canciones, Dios se nos revela a través de la Palabra.

Este domingo escuchamos un ejemplo dramático de cómo las palabras escritas en una época cobran vida siglos después en un contexto nuevo. Isaías vio que el rey de Judá le había dado la espalda a su propio pueblo, pero también vio el día en que se realizaría el triunfo final de Dios. Ochocientos años después, Mateo señaló que Jesús procedía de la misma región mencionada por Isaías, dando un nuevo significado a la “gran luz” que venció a las tinieblas. Escuchando la santa palabra de Dios, reflexionemos sobre cómo la luz de Cristo sigue venciendo las tinieblas, y resolvámonos a hacer de la palabra de Dios una fuerza orientadora en nuestras vidas.

Pregunta de la Semana
