3RD SUNDAY—LENT

Today in the first reading, we hear the Chosen People grumble for they are thirsty and have no idea how long their journey through the desert will last. “Is the LORD in our midst or not?”. God displays great patience both with Moses and His people. Moses, uses the very staff he used when he led his people out of Egypt and opened the Red Sea for them, to strike a rock where water pours out. Once again, everyone has the evidence that God is in their midst.

The woman in today’s Gospel comes to the well to draw water, something she had probably done every day of her life as far back as she could remember. But on this day she encounters the Messiah and her whole life changes.

The waters of baptism cleanse us of our sins even as they quench our spiritual thirst. The water God provided for the Chosen People in the desert did as well. God could have punished them for disparaging Moses and questioning God. Instead, God provided water, giving them sustenance and forgiveness. Jesus could have shamed the woman for her many marriages, but instead he offered her living water, water to give her life eternal. Similarly, we do not deserve the life-giving water we receive in baptism, but Jesus offers it to us, as Paul would say, while we are still sinners, in mercy and love.

When we gather with God’s people to worship the Lord, to listen to God’s word, and to receive the Lord’s body and blood, we can be assured that the Lord is in our midst. Jesus has quenched our deepest thirst with living water, with water welling up to eternal life. Together let us give witness to our faith that God remains always in our midst.

Question of the Week

What can I do or say that will show others the living water that I have found in Jesus, the water that satisfies my spiritual thirst? Will I make that my mission this week?

3^{er} DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

Hoy, en la primera lectura, escuchamos al Pueblo Elegido quejarse porque tienen sed y no saben cuánto durará su viaje por el desierto. “¿Está el Señor en medio de nosotros o no?” Dios muestra una gran paciencia tanto con Moisés como con su pueblo. Moisés, usa la misma vara que usó cuando sacó a su pueblo de Egipto y abrió el Mar Rojo para ellos, para golpear una roca donde brota agua. Una vez más, todos tienen la evidencia de que Dios está en medio de ellos.

La mujer del evangelio de hoy viene al pozo a sacar agua, algo que probablemente había hecho todos los días de su vida desde que tenía memoria. Pero ese día se encuentra con el Mesías y toda su vida cambia.

Las aguas del bautismo nos limpian de nuestros pecados así como sacian nuestra sed espiritual. El agua que Dios proveyó para el Pueblo Elegido en el desierto también lo hizo. Dios podría haberlos castigado por menospreciar a Moisés y cuestionar a Dios. En cambio, Dios proveyó agua, dándoles sustento y perdón. Jesús pudo haber avergonzado a la mujer por sus muchos matrimonios, pero en cambio le ofreció agua viva, agua para darle vida eterna. Del mismo modo, no merecemos el agua vivificante que recibimos en el bautismo, pero Jesús nos la ofrece, como diría Pablo, cuando todavía somos pecadores, en misericordia y amor.

Cuando nos reunimos con el pueblo de Dios para adorar al Señor, escuchar la palabra de Dios y recibir el cuerpo y la sangre del Señor, podemos estar seguros de que el Señor está entre nosotros. Jesús ha saciado nuestra sed más profunda con agua viva, con agua que brota para vida eterna. Juntos demos testimonio de nuestra fe de que Dios permanece siempre entre nosotros.

Pregunta de la Semana

¿Qué puedo hacer o decir que mostrará a otros el agua viva que he encontrado en Jesús, el agua que satisface mi sed espiritual?
¿Haré de esa mi misión esta semana?

ST JEROME COUNSELING

Carrie Andrews, has been offering counseling services to registered parishioners for a few years. Even though she is now in private practice (Grey Skies Counseling, PLLC), she still sees a number of our parishioners. She wanted to reach out and let our community know the following:

"To my clients, friends and family...I have not been able to be as punctual or professional as I normally am and I want to apologize for this. I have had some family medical situations going on with my parents and it has taken a toll on me personally and professionally. I am asking for understanding and promise I will be back and better than ever once things get settled with my family."

KOC SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

The Knights of Columbus, Council 4315 will be awarding three $1,000 scholarships this year. Applications are available to children or grandchildren of all Knights in good standing with Council 4315. Applications are available at the St. Jerome Church office and the East Central Counseling Office. Application deadline is April 25, 2023.

PADUA PLACE RAFFLE

Knights of Columbus, Council 4315 has raffle tickets that will benefit Padua Place Assisted Living/Retirement Home for Priests. Tickets will be available at the fish fries or from members of Council 4315 and on sale in the foyer of the church on March 18th & 19th.

The drawing will take place on March 24th. Please help support this very worth cause for our retired priests and religious!

RITE OF ELECTION

Our candidates and catechumens have been preparing to receive their sacraments of initiation during the Easter Vigil. One important milestone of this journey is the Rite of Election which marks their entry into the final phase of their preparation. Prior to the Rite of Election, the catechumens (those who will be baptized) inscribe their names in the Book of the Elect at a ceremony in their respective parishes. At St. Jerome, this was done at the 8AM Mass. The parish then sends the catechumens to the Bishop for the Rite of Election.

The Rite of Election for the Archdiocese was held at St. Jerome on Sunday, February 26th for various churches in our area who sent their candidates and catechumens.

Following the Rite of Election, they are called "the elect," since they have been elected by the Church (in the person of the archbishop) to become members. Please keep them and their facilitators in your prayers as they continue to prepare for their sacraments.
