RESPECT LIFE MONTH

St. Joseph, defender of life, pray for us!

DIOCESE OF SPRINGFIELD Office of Bishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ * October 4, 2021

World Mission Sunday – the annual, worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church – will be on October 24 this year. This important day in the life of the Church universal fortifies our understanding of our shared call to mission, bestowed upon us at Baptism.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). The Holy Father shares his zeal, reminding us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel." He invites us to speak of our faith!

World Mission Sunday provides us with that very opportunity. We can speak about our faith and respond to our missionary call – through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on that special day. Your gifts support and sustain priests, religious and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, serve the poor – and speak of our shared faith in all corners of the world.

"The global pandemic has brought to the fore and amplified the pain, the solitude, the poverty, and the injustices experienced by so many people," reminds Pope Francis. This year, as the world recovers from the loss and the challenges that resulted, let us respond with reciprocal generosity to the fullest extent that we are able.

If you were unable to support missionaries last year due to difficulties arising from the pandemic and assembly, I urge you to double your generosity for those most in need. As we rebuild our lives, help us to also reach out in solidarity and support for the Mission Church, and the work and witness of missionaries in the Pope's missions.

In this spirit, I offer my sincere personal gratitude for your kind missionary heart, reaching out in love throughout Mission Month. Gratefully in the Lord,

+Most Reverend William D. Byrne, Bishop of Springfield

What if every action you made, no matter how small, was as full of love as possible? That question was at the center of St. Thérèse of Lisieux' life. October begins with her feast day, reminding us that no action is too tiny, no part of us too insignificant, no relationship, no struggle, no dream, no doubt too small to be offered to God in love.

May these seven bursts of inspiration help you fill even the smallest things with great love!

Inspiration from St. Thérèse of Lisieux

"Remember that nothing is small in the eyes of God. Do all that you do with love."

You deserve to be heard...

Over 70,000 Catholics have taken the Annual Catholic Survey! Lend your voice to the largest survey of Catholics ever, go to: <https://annualcatholicsurvey.com>

God wants you to dream!

Who inspires you—living or dead—and do you spend enough time with those people?

Virtue in focus.

Patience is the capacity to accept or tolerate delay, trouble or suffering without getting angry or upset. Who are the most patient people you know? How do they practice patience? What are three ways you can become a more patient person?

Reconciliation.

Reconciliation is a lifelong blessing. No matter how far you may wander from God, he will never stop searching for you and he will never stop encouraging you to become the-best-version-of-yourself, to grow in virtue, and to live a holy life.

For those seeking healing and forgiveness for past pains...

"Approach those pains from the past with someone else. Seek out a caring, confidential friend, an excellent priest, or a trained counselor. There is strength in the presence of a listening, attentive person. You are not alone. Studies ever show that sharing your pain with someone else helps your brain begin to rewire itself."—Allen Hunt, taken from Everybody Needs to Forgive Somebody.

Let's Pray!

May today there be peace within. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith. May you use those gifts that you have received and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content knowing you are a child of God. Let this presence settle into your bones, and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise, and love. It is there for each and every one of us. Amen. -

Prayer of St. Thérèse of Lisieux

Saint John Paul II - October 22

“Open wide the doors to Christ,” urged John Paul II during the homily at the Mass where he was installed as pope in 1978.

Born in Wadowice, Poland, Karol Jozef Wojtyla had lost his mother, father, and older brother before his 21st birthday. Karol’s promising academic career at Krakow’s Jagiellonian University was cut short by the outbreak of World War II. While working in a quarry and a chemical factory, he enrolled in an “underground” seminary in Kraków. Ordained in 1946, he was immediately sent to Rome where he earned a doctorate in theology.

Back in Poland, a short assignment as assistant pastor in a rural parish preceded his very fruitful chaplaincy for university students. Soon Fr. Wojtyla earned a doctorate in philosophy and began teaching that subject at Poland’s University of Lublin. Communist officials allowed Wojtyla to be appointed auxiliary bishop of Kraków in 1958, considering him a relatively harmless intellectual. They could not have been more wrong!

Bishop Wojtyla attended all four sessions of Vatican II and contributed especially to its Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World. Appointed as archbishop of Kraków in 1964, he was named a cardinal three years later.

Elected pope in October 1978, he took the name of his short-lived, immediate predecessor. Pope John Paul II was the first non-Italian pope in 455 years. In time, he made pastoral visits to 124 countries, including several with small Christian populations. John Paul II promoted ecumenical and interfaith initiatives, especially the 1986 Day of Prayer for World Peace in Assisi. He visited Rome’s main synagogue and the Western Wall in Jerusalem; he also established diplomatic relations between the Holy See and Israel. He improved Catholic-Muslim relations, and in 2001 visited a mosque in Damascus, Syria.

The Great Jubilee of the Year 2000, a key event in John Paul’s ministry, was marked by special celebrations in Rome and elsewhere for Catholics and other Christians. Relations with the Orthodox Churches improved considerably during his papacy.

“Christ is the center of the universe and of human history” was the opening line of John Paul II’s 1979 encyclical, Redeemer of the Human Race. In 1995, he described himself to the United Nations General Assembly as “a witness to hope.” His 1979 visit to Poland encouraged the growth of the Solidarity movement there and the collapse of communism in central and eastern Europe 10 years later. John Paul II began World Youth Day and traveled to several countries for those celebrations. He very much wanted to visit China and the Soviet Union, but the governments in those countries prevented that. One of the most well-remembered photos of John Paul II’s pontificate was his one-on-one conversation in 1983, with Mehmet Ali Agca, who had attempted to assassinate him two years earlier. In his 27 years of papal ministry, John Paul II wrote 14 encyclicals and five books, canonized 482 saints and beatified 1,338 people. In the last years of his life, he suffered from Parkinson’s disease and was forced to cut back on some of his activities.

Pope Benedict XVI beatified John Paul II in 2011, and Pope Francis canonized him in 2014.

Reflection

Before John Paul II’s funeral Mass in St. Peter’s Square, hundreds of thousands of people had waited patiently for a moment to pray before his body, which lay in state inside St. Peter’s for several days. The media coverage of his funeral was unprecedented. Presiding at the funeral Mass, Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger—then dean of the College of Cardinals and later Pope Benedict XVI—concluded his homily by saying: “None of us can ever forget how, in that last Easter Sunday of his life, the Holy Father, marked by suffering, came once more to the window of the Apostolic Palace and one last time gave his blessing urbi et orbi (‘to the city and to the world’).

“We can be sure that our beloved pope is standing today at the window of the Father’s house, that sees us and blesses us. Yes, bless us, Holy Father. We entrust your dear soul to the Mother of God, your Mother, who guided you each day and who will guide you now to the glory of her Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.”

¿Qué pasaría si cada acción que hicieras, por pequeña que fuera, estuviera tan llena de amor como fuera posible? Esta pregunta fue el centro de la vida de Santa Teresa de Lisieux. El mes de octubre comienza con su fiesta, recordándonos que ninguna acción es demasiado pequeña, ninguna parte de nosotros es demasiado insignificante, ninguna relación, ninguna lucha, ningún sueño, ninguna duda es demasiado pequeña para ser ofrecida a Dios en el amor.

Que estas siete ráfagas de inspiración te ayuden a llenar de gran amor hasta las cosas más pequeñas.

Inspiración de Santa Teresa de Lisieux

"Recuerda que nada es pequeño a los ojos de Dios. Haz todo lo que hagas con amor".

Mereces ser escuchado...

Más de 70.000 católicos han realizado la Encuesta Católica Anual. Presta tu voz a la mayor encuesta de católicos de la historia, entra en: <https://annualcatholicsurvey.com>

¡Dios quiere que sueñes!

¿Quién te inspira -vivo o muerto- y pasas suficiente tiempo con esas personas?

Enfocados en la Virtud

La paciencia es la capacidad de aceptar o tolerar la demora, los problemas o el sufrimiento sin enfadarse ni alterarse. ¿Quiénes son las personas más pacientes que conoces? ¿Cómo practican la paciencia? ¿De qué tres maneras puedes convertirte en una persona más paciente?

La reconciliación.

La reconciliación es una bendición para toda la vida. No importa lo lejos que te alejes de Dios, él nunca dejará de buscarte y nunca dejará de animarte a convertirte en la mejor versión de ti mismo, a crecer en la virtud y a vivir una vida santa.

Para los que buscan la curación y el perdón de los dolores del pasado...

"Aborda esos dolores del pasado con otra persona. Busca a un amigo afectuoso y confidencial, a un sacerdote excelente o a un consejero capacitado. Hay fuerza en la presencia de una persona que escucha y está atenta. No estás solo. Los estudios demuestran que compartir el dolor con otra persona ayuda a que el cerebro comience a reconectarse" -Allen Hunt, tomado de "Everybody Needs to Forgive Somebody."

Oremos

Que hoy haya paz interior. Que confíes en Dios que estás exactamente donde debes estar. Que no olvides las infinitas posibilidades que nacen de la fe. Que utilices los dones que has recibido y transmitas el amor que se te ha dado. Que te sientas satisfecho sabiendo que eres un hijo de Dios. Deja que esta presencia se instale en tus huesos, y permite a tu alma la libertad de cantar, bailar, alabar y amar. Está ahí para todos y cada uno de nosotros. Amén. - szacunku dla życia.

Oración de Santa Teresa de Lisieux

Święty Józefie, obrońco życia, módl się za nami!

Co by było, gdyby każde twoje działanie, nieważne jak małe, było tak pełne miłości, jak to tylko możliwe? To pytanie było w centrum życia św. Teresy z Lisieux. Miesiąc październik rozpoczyna się jej świętem, przypominając nam, że żadne działanie nie jest zbyt małe, żadna część nas nie jest zbyt mała znacząca, żadna relacja, żadna walka, żadne marzenie, żadna wątpliwość nie jest zbyt mała, aby ofiarować ją Bogu w miłości.

Niech te inspiracje pomogą ci wypełnić nawet najmniejsze rzeczy wielką miłością.

Inspiracja od św. Teresy z Lisieux "Pamiętaj, że w oczach Boga nic nie jest małe. Wszystko, co robisz, czyn z miłością".

Zasługujesz na to, by Cię usłyszano... Ponad 70.000 katolików wzięło udział w Dorocznej Ankiecie Katolickiej! Oddaj swój głos w największym badaniu katolików w historii, wejdź na: <https://annualcatholicsurvey.com>

Bóg chce, byś marzył! Kto cię inspiruje - żywy lub umarły - i czy spędzasz wystarczająco dużo czasu z tymi ludźmi?

Cnota w centrum uwagi. Cierpliwość to zdolność do zaakceptowania lub tolerowania opóźnienia, kłopotów lub cierpienia bez wpadania w gniew lub zdenerwowanie. Kim są najbardziej cierpliwi ludzie, jakich znasz? W jaki sposób praktykują cierpliwość? Jakie są trzy sposoby na to, abyś stał się bardziej cierpliwą osobą?

Pojednanie. Pojednanie jest błogosławieństwem na całe życie. Bez względu na to, jak daleko możesz oddalić się od Boga, On nigdy nie przestanie cię szukać i nigdy nie przestanie cię zachęcać, byś stał się najlepszą wersją samego siebie, wzrastał w cnotach i prowadził święte życie.

Dla tych, którzy szukają uzdrowienia i przebaczenia za dawne bóle... "Podejdź do tych bólów z przeszłości z kimś innym. Poszukaj troskliwego, poufnego przyjaciela, doskonałego księdza lub wykwalifikowanego doradcy. W obecności słuchającej, uważnej osoby jest siła. Nie jesteś sam. Badania wykazują, że dzielenie się swoim bólem z kimś innym pomaga mózgowi zacząć się przeprogramowywać."-Allen Hunt, zaczerpnięte z książki Everybody Needs to Forgive Somebody.

Módlmy się! Niech dzisiaj zapanuje w tobie pokój. Ufaj Bogu, że jesteś dokładnie tam, gdzie masz być. Niech nie zapomnisz o nieskończonych możliwościach, które rodzą się z wiary. Obyś używał tych darów, które otrzymałeś i przekazywał dalej miłość, która została ci dana. Obyś był zadowolony wiedząc, że jesteś dzieckiem Bożym. Pozwólcie, aby ta obecność zadomowiła się w waszych kościołach i pozwólcie waszej duszy na wolność śpiewania, tańczenia, chwaleń i kochania. To jest tam dla każdego z nas. Amen. -
