Saints Simon & Jude October 28

Jude is so named by Luke and Acts. Matthew and Mark call him Thaddeus. He is not mentioned elsewhere in the Gospels, except of course where all the apostles are mentioned. Scholars hold that he is not the author of the Letter of Jude. Actually, Jude had the same name as Judas Iscairiot. Evidently because of the disgrace of that name, it was shortened to "Jude" in English.

Simon is mentioned on all four lists of the apostles. On two of them he is called "the Zealot." The Zealots were a Jewish sect that represented an extreme of Jewish nationalism. For them, the messianic promise of the Old Testament meant that the Jews were to be a free and independent nation. God alone was their king, and any payment of taxes to the Romans—the very domination of the Romans—was a blasphemy against God. No doubt some of the Zealots were the spiritual heirs of the Maccabees, carrying on their ideals of religion and independence. But many were the counterparts of modern terrorists. They raided and killed, attacking both foreigners and "collaborating" Jews. They were chiefly responsible for the rebellion against Rome which ended in the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

Reflection

As in the case of all the apostles except for Peter, James and John, we are faced with men who are really unknown, and we are struck by the fact that their holiness is simply taken to be a gift of Christ. He chose some unlikely people: a former Zealot, a former (crooked) tax collector, an impetuous fisherman, two "sons of thunder," and a man named Judas Iscairiot.

It is a reminder that we cannot receive too often. Holiness does not depend on human merit, culture, personality, effort, or achievement. It is entirely God's creation and gift. God needs no Zealots to bring about the kingdom by force. Jude, like all the saints, is the saint of the impossible: Only God can create his divine life in human beings. And God wills to do so, for all of us.

Saint Jude is the Patron Saint of: Desperate Situations

SACRAMENTAL CELEBRATIONS

CONFESSION: Saturday at 3:00 p.m. in the Church.

MARRIAGE: At least one member of the couple must be a parishioner & actively attend Mass. Couples need to make arrangements at least 6 months in advance. No date may be reserved until interview with Pastor.

BAPTISM: Preparation class is 3rd Saturday after 5:30 pm Mass. Celebration of the Sacrament last Saturday during Mass. Registration in the Parish office.

ANointing OF THE SICK: Call the Parish Office.

Minute Meditations

To finally surrender ourselves to healing, we must have three spaces opened within us—and all at the same time: our opinionated head, our closed-down heart, and our defensive and defended body. That is the work of spirituality—and it is work. Yes, it is finally the work of "a Power greater than ourselves," and it will lead to great luminosity and depth of seeing. That is why true faith is one of the most holistic and free actions a human can perform. It leads to such broad and deep perception that most traditions would just call it "light." Remember, Jesus said that we also were the light of the world (Matthew 5:14), not just himself (John 8:12).

—from the book Breathing Under Water: Spirituality and the Twelve Steps by Richard Rohr

Santos Simón y Judas

DÍA DE FIESTA — 28 DE OCTUBRE

Nombrados entre los Doce Apóstoles en el Nuevo Testamento, Simón es “el cananeo” para Mateo y Marcos y “el zelote” para Lucas; Judas es “Tadeo” para Mateo y Marcos, “Judas de Santiago” para Lucas y “Judas, no el Iscariote” para Juan. Después de Pentecostés, ellos desaparecieron. Sin embargo, según cuenta la tradición oriental, Simón falleció pacíficamente en Edesa, mientras que la tradición occidental cuenta que él evangelizaba en Egipto y que luego se unió a Judas—quien había estado en Mesopotamia—para ir juntos en una misión a Persia en donde ambos fueron martirizados en un mismo día. Simón es el santo patrón de los curtidores y de los leñadores; Judas es el patrón de las causas desesperadas posiblemente porque los primeros cristianos le rezaban, con un nombre que evocaba a Judas Iscariote, solo cuando todo lo demás fallaba.
