

Name: _____

5th Grade Checklist
for May 22 Drop-off Day

*Keep all consumable books: Math, Vocabulary Workshop, Social Studies, Religion

*Please take off all coverings from the books, clear out any papers within the pages and erase any markings before you turn these in:

- English textbook (Houghton Mifflin English Grade 5 copyright 2006)
- Spelling textbook (Zaner-Bloser Spelling Connections Grade 5 copyright 2012)
- Science textbook (Scott Foresman Science copyright 2010 The Diamond Edition)
- Library books
- Borrowed books from classroom teachers' libraries
- Sports uniforms and/or Christmas costumes
- Distant Learning Documentation Sheets
- Place each student's returned items in a black trash bag, labeled with the student's name and homebase teacher. (Wolf or Arnett) Check information sent from the office for your drop off time.
- Do NOT turn in technology on May 22 if you borrowed from school. This will be collected the following week.

---

You will pick up:

- Summer reading assignment for 6th grade
- Any pre-ordered pictures
- Summer Solutions books (if pre-ordered and mailed to school)